EDITOR'S NOTE

A new year, a new staff, a new advisor, and a new publishing company has been involved in putting together our 1987 yearbook. This year, after considerable thought, we decided to present a more traditional yearbook. With this in mind we searched for a school oriented theme which would reach every student at Eastern. The theme we decided on was "Makin Tracks." The Wildcat is our school mascot and it's pawprints have a special meaning to us all. At the same time we hope that everyone will be able to relate the theme "Makin Tracks" to their individual lives as we make our tracks not only at ERHS but down the road of life.

As you look through Links '87 we hope you will smile, laugh, and maybe cry as you remember this year at Eastern. We hope that 1987 will always be as memorable a school year for you as it has been for us.

Sincerely,
Carla Nixon & Steven Wicker
Co-editors

Cindy Lowe

Dedication 1987

This year the Eastern Randolph Links staff is very honored to announce that the 1987 yearbook is dedicated to Mrs. Cindy Lowe. Mrs. Lowe has taught business courses at Eastern for four years. Prior to teaching at Eastern, she taught for seven years at Trinity High School. Some of the classes she has taught at Eastern are Directed Office Occupations, Office Occupations, Shorthand, and General Business. She is also a co-sponsor of FBLA here at school.

When asked what she likes most about Eastern, Mrs. Lowe said "the friendliness of the faculty and students, the attitude of everyone, and the closeness of the school to her home in Liberty" mean a lot to her.

Cindy Lowe graduated from Southeast Guilford High School. She attended college at UNC-G where she received a BS in Business Education and a MS in Business Office and Marketing Educating. She is married to Trentin Lowe and has one son, Justin. Some of her interests are sewing, playing the piano and being outdoors. Her main goal as a teacher she says is, "teaching students to become efficient workers."

The 1987 Links staff and the Senior Class would like to wish Mrs. Lowe much happiness and success at Eastern and in life. Thanks Mrs. Lowe for being a great teacher.

STUDENT LIFE

The 1986-87 school year at Eastern Randolph began as it always does, extremely hectic. Students returned to school wearing Jams, floppy shirts, Reeboks, cool shades, and shaved sides. Some even went as far as having designs shaved on their heads. Once Labor Day vacation was over, students and teachers settled down for a year of hard work.

However, there are many things which occur outside of the classroom. Some of the important events in the students lives are magazine and candy sales in the fall, Spirit Week, Homecoming, The Prom, and of course graduation.

"Mr. Magazine Man" plays Let's Make A Deal with Freddie Burgess.

Isn't she lovely . . . Isn't she beautiful.

Although the consequences were harsh, the tradition was carried out and the water tower was painted once again.

Spirit Week

Enhances creativity

October 6-10 was declared as our annual Spirit Week at Eastern. Each day had a particular theme to which the students dresssed. Monday was designated as Kiddie Day. Students and faculty came dressed in diapers and footed pajamas carrying their favorite toy. Tuesday students came to school bummed out for Slick or Hick Day wearing overalls and hats. Others came in formal dresses and tuxedos. Wednesday students took a trip back to the days of poodle skirts and leather jackets for 50's Day. Some radical students and faculty members came as flower children from the 60's carrying protest signs which were symbolic of the decade. Thursday was Punk Rock Day. Chains around necks and wrists of flourescent colored-hair students appeared throughout the school. And Friday students showed their school spirit by wearing green and gold for Green/Gold Day. The highlight of the week was the pep rally on Friday where David Freeman was crowned our Mock Homecoming Queen and Mrs. Weeks, her daughter Kristy and David Briscoe were named most spirited teacher and students.

SPIRIT WEEK

The enthusiasm and creativity of the students and faculty during Spirit Week was outstanding. It was great to see everyone participating.

An additional treat during the pep rally on Friday was the pie in the face contest. This took place as a result of challenges that were made to the students concerning magazine sales. Mr. Whitley challenged all the students to increase their total sales, while individual classes challenged each other to sell more.

SURVEY RESULTS

Among the many activities taking place at Eastern during the month of October, the yearbook staff asked students to take a few minutes during homeroom to complete a survey. Some of the categories that students were asked to choose from were their favorite movie, car radio station, and restaurant. The individuality of each class was obvious by the results of the survey. The results were so interesting that the staff decided to print the winners from each category. Check the survey to see if your choices agree with your fellow classmates!

Rock 92 was a unanimous decision in the 10th & 11th grades.

CLASS LIFE

There is never a dull moment in the classroom at Eastern Randolph. Something interesting is always happening. With thirty students in some classes it is often difficult to keep up with what everyone is doing. Teachers try to add variety to their classes by using VCR's, reading stories aloud in class, assigning projects, and having class discussions.

Homecoming 1986

Trudi McGee crowned queen

Homecoming is always a night to remember; especially for one young lady. This year the lucky girl was Ms. Trudi McGee. Trudi now reigns as Homecoming Queen for 1986-1987. Some of Trudi's hobbies include: oil and water painting, snow and water skiing, and riding horses. She plans to attend North Carolina State University, where she hopes to study Science Education. When asked how she felt about being selected Homecoming Queen, she said, "I was shocked, happy, and amazed."

ER Spotlights Students

Driver's Ed. Student: Jimbo McDaniel

Jimbo McDaniel took top honors in the N.C. Driver and Traffic Safety Education Association's state driving rodeo. It was held in Gardner, N.C. on April 24, 1986. Jimbo participated in the county and district contests before advancing to the state contest. There were four phases that the competition consisted of — a written test, a road test, a skills test, and a speech test. Eastern Randolph congratulates Jimbo for a job well done! Jimbo is a junior at E.R. He is the son of Mr. & Mrs. James McDaniel, Sr.

Jimbo McDaniel and Gary King, winners of Driver Education Awards.

Exchange Student: Silka Bodemar

This year Eastern Randolph has been fortunate to have a special guest as a student. Silke Bodemar has been visiting the E.R. community from Disseldorf, West Germany. Silke is seventeen years old. She is an only child. She has been living with Mr. & Mrs. Hank Pressler in Asheboro, N.C. Silke's hobbies include: playing tennis, shopping, partying, and being with friends. She will return to Germany to finish school. When asked what she has found especially interesting about life in the U.S. Silke said, "Most Americans are very friendly and are glad to help you. It is much easier to make friends in the U.S." As for the difference between going to school in Germany compared to the U.S., she said, "In Germany, schools are much more competitive than schools in the U.S. The school spirit in the U.S. is much more than in Germany, where there are no sports such as football and basketball."

PEOPLE

While the Freshmen anxiously await their first day of school at Eastern Randolph, the Seniors are already dreaming about graduation and the beach the next June. In October, the Seniors order invitations, and cap and gowns. The Sophomore Class is getting ready to order their class rings. The Junior Class starts to sweat about the SAT and planning the prom . . . Everyone gets excited about another year at E.R.

CLASS OF 1987

Melody Simmons escorts the 1986-87 Mascots: Katy Gant and Thomas Seawell.

Last Will

I, Todd Allen, being of supreme mind and body hereby leave the gret memories of my 4 years to all my teachers, and to my sister Britt, no way home.

I, Tony Allen, being of poor mind and no body, leave nothing to nobody because I have nothing to leave.

I, Dean Allred, being of great body and perfect mind, leave to all that complained of my smoking car the wish that you will die of carbon monoxide poison.

I, Mike Allred, being of deranged mind and nice body leave my love to Amanda, my solo to Tim Hayes, and the Drum Line Trophy to Wayne Lamb.

I, Renee Allred, with sound mind and body, leave all my worldly possessions to Karen McNeill and Ester Burns and my dirty locker to John Maness.

I, Marshall Alston, being of sound body and mind, leave my happy times to my sister Jackie in hope that she'll enjoy E.R. as much as I did.

I, Jarrod Ambrose, being of sound mind and beach bound body, leave my locker to Sandra Kime, and to Tim E. Cox leave my ability to skip class.

I, Cheryl Ammons, being of "Lots of Sound," "Little Mind," and body leave my parking space to Tammy A. and my smile to all who need it.

I, Mike Atkins, of should mind give a hard time, I leave Eastern Randolph.

I, Harold Ayers, being of considerable mind and fantastic body leave my Sun-Country bottles to Brad Cain, and the contents of locker 567 to Mr. Whitley.

I, Angie Barker, being of should mind and body, leave all my good times to Maria Fulton. I take with me the great memories of Chris and Margaret.

I, Alice Bates, leave my friendship and love to Kathy Carnish.

I, Shane Baxter, being of sound mind, leave all my good times and laughs here at E.R. to my brother Bobby.

I, Steve Bigham, leave to all the juniors the hope that one day you'll be a real man like me, and to Melanie H. and Kim M. I leave a few more years at E.R.H.S.

I, Beverly Black, being of sound mind and body, leave all my good times to my brother Elroy, and my locker to Tonya Graves in hope that she keeps it cleaner.

I, Silke Bodemar, leave my friendship and love to all the friends I made this year; and don't forget me, because you all will be in my memories.

I, Michelle Branch, being of sound mind (???) leave to Kristi Reagon my old tests, lots of luck in your senior year! I take the memories of E.R. with me to cherish.

I, Tony Bray, being of sound mind and body, leave to all my teachers a hard time. Also, to Mr. Whitley I leave all my empty beer cans and all of my hair.

I, Davey Briscoe, of unsound mind and great body, leave Mrs. Weeks all my headaches and miseries, and to Todd Hall I leave my intelligence because he needs it!

I, Derek Brooks, leave my Red, White, and Blue football shoes to Scoobie Cheek.

I, Deborah L. Brown with dirty mind and little body do hereby bestow upon "Little Jack" all my good times of the last 4 years, to my brother, I leave my bad attitude.

To Fred Brown, I leave all the women that wanted me and I didn't want them. To Stefanie Coble, I leave the people's choice — my locker and love.

I, Rogie Brown, being of should mind and body, leave all my wordly goods to Brad Cain, my son and Doodie my boy.

I, Tammy Brown, being of sound mind and body, leave my brains to my brother Johnny, he'll need them. I leave my locker to Tootie in hopes she can keep it clean.

I, Kit Bryan, being of no mind and great body, leave to Todd Hall my BAD attitude and good looks. To Needham, I leave nothing because he deserves nothing.

To Diana Bullard: I leave this place to you for the next 3 years. Have fun!! From Greg Harman.

I, Freddie Burgess, being of sound mind and body, leave the excess hair from my next hair cut to Mr. Whitley and Coach Oliver.

I, Ray Burgess, leave my famous reputation as Rocket Ray to Craig Fogleman as Rocket Craig, even though he has a Ford, and I have a Chevy.

I, Lisa Burns, leave my car to Grady Smith and for you to be free of all girl troubles. Good luck! To Beth Pierce, I leave all of my days of getting up early.

I, Charles Burrow leave my locker and my parking space to Chad Murphy.

I, Stephanie Cagle of unsound mind and body hereby leave everything I had at E.R. to Wendy Cagle.

I, Kimberly P. Cain, being of sound mind and body, hereby bequeath to Lisa R. my parking space in hopes you'll finally make it on time.

I, Lisa Carpenter, of generally sound mind and body, hereby bequeath the honor of singing telegrams to all those people fortunate enough to carry a tune.

I, Marie Cassady, being of sound mind and body do leave my brains to my best friends Betty Shoffner, and Tootie Shoffner, and my locker to my sister Tammy.

I, Laura Caudle, being of sound mind and body, leave most of my worldly possessions to Cindy Miller, and my locker to Kim White.

I, Lauretta Cheek, being in sound mind and flesh will anything of value to Rita Coltrane, who will still be a student here when I leave.

To Scoobie Cheek, I leave all of my running back moves and speed which is 4.4 and last but not least, my women. Good Luck Next Year!

I, Audrey "All 2 Pieces" Coble, leave to my beloved brother the ability 2 B-come more like me. To Senior Hedgecock, "Por Favor," (Better not.)

I, Suzanne Coble, being of inbalanced mind and healthy body, leave to all of my underclassmen friends all of my unfinished homework.

I, Brad Cox, leave my parking space #201 to Spring Bingham in hopes that her car won't be vandalized like mine. To Jean Payne I leave my rapping ability. Ha! Ha!

I, Kenneth Cox being of somewhat sound mind and body do bestow upon Tim Cox my high standing and social life of Eastern.

I, Butch Craven, being of sound mind and body leave my strength to my brother coming up as a freshman and school map, and my parking space to Danny Rogers.

I, Jan Cummings, being of not so sound mind and body leave all my days of sneaking to the mall, and getting into trouble, to Tracey Miller.

I, Vondena Daniel being of sound mind and body leave all my homework and good times to Tracy Suggs.

I, Belinda Davis, being os sound mind and body do hereby bequeath to Michael Morton, my parking space #277. To Michelle W. I leave my good grades.

I, Tondrea Davis, being of sound mind and body, leave Sarah Currin, Kim R. and Lovie D. my seat in Mr. Wooten's room, and behave so you're not in Mr. Whitley's.

I, Zondrea L.R. Davis being of sound mind and body leave all my teachers and homework to my best favorite cousin, Sarah Currin for her junior year.

I, Kyle Dixon, being of sound mind and body leave hard times for Mr. Whitley.

I, Shelly Dodson, being of sound mind and body leave all my good memories of E.R. to my sister Lovie, and my seat in Lyric Chorus to Kristi and Sharon.

I, Allan Duncan, being of sound mind and body leave everything I have ever learned here to who can find it, and to Melissa H. I leave my morning experiences?!

I, Cathy Edwards, being of insane mind and body hereby leave my bad attitude for Traci Andrews. To Jimmy, whom I love, I leave my parking space.

I, Lori Elberson, being finally a senior, leave my seat in Lyric Choir and my love for music to Kristi Reagon, also to Antionette A. my memories of Musical Theatre.

I, Mike Hicks, tell Mr. Whitley to get some.

I, Ann Hill, being of sound mind and body, hereby bequeath to Sarah Currin good luck with laying out of school without getting in trouble.

I, June Hodge, being of sound mind and body, leave to my sister, Jane, my locker on E-hall in hopes she'll keep it cleaner that I did.

I, Jennifer Holt, being of sound mind and body leave all my good times and what good grades I had to my sweetheart, Brad Staley.

I, Laura Hooker, being of sound mind and body, leave Betty Shoffner all my French 2 notes.

I, Carmen Humble, leave my good times to Anita, Kathy, Greg, Paul, and Glenn.

I, Tina Humble, being of sound mind and body, leave to all my friends the great times I have had. Craig, I would like to thank you for making my senior year great.

I, Rodella Humphrey, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my friendship, laughter and crazy times to Angie "Dopey" Doby.

I, Pebble Isley, being of sound mind and body, leave Sharon Glover my good looks, but most of all, my love.

I, Nelson Jessup, an ex-big league football player leave fond memories of my football experiences to my illegitimate father, Coach Cates. P.S. I love you dad.

I, Joe Johnson, being of frail body and fried mind, do hereby bequeath my hair to Mr. Whitley, my illegal locker to anybody who gets to it.

I, Donella Jones, being of sound mind and body, leave to Julie Shannon, all the REAL fun of my senior year.

I, Donna Joyce, being of sound mind and body, leave a lot of great memories in the lunchroom to Angie D. and Maria F.

I, Phil Key, being of sound mind and body, leave my locker and any incredibly high grade point average to my brother, who'll be a freshman.

I, Angel Kidd, leave all my good times to Donna Craven and all the bad to Alan Kinney.

I, Katherine Kidd, being of sound mind and body, leave all my homework to Esther Burns and leave all my love and happy times to Miss Moore.

I, Donovan Kimes, leave my success in dressing to my boy, Adrian. To my Girl "Amanda," I hope we become closer, yea we will.

I, Kevin Kimrey, leave to my sister Cindy and her friend Mary Beth Tucker, no way to school.

I, Cherry Kindley, being of sound mind and body, leave all my good times to Monica Miller and to Donna Dunn.

I, Rodney Kinney, being of sound mind and body, leave my great human strength and my parking space to my brother, Alan Kinney.

I, Sherry King, leave to Sandy Fields, the Prayer Group and a lot of love.

I, Robert King, do hereby leave all the good times, what few there are, to all my friends in the junior class.

I, Clifton Kivett, leave 3 kegs of beer to Travis Pugh and Craig Davis, and Mike Hicks if he does not pass.

I, Steven Kizer, being of sound, mind and body, do hereby bestow my great times on the rising seniors of E.R.H.S.

I, Kim Lawson, of sound mind and body, leave my parking space to Donna Dunn and Jill Curtis.

I, Howard Layton, being of what mind and body I have left, hereby leave my position on the left-hand side of the bench to Tony Hill.

I, Jacqueline Ledbetter, being of sound mind and body, leave all my good times, friendship, love, and laughter to Kim Campbell.

I, Mike Leonard, leave to the juniors, all my joy and laughter and to one freshman I leave my four great years and my old pair of Reeboks.

I, Chuck Lineberry, being of twisted mind and fragile state, leave all my material possessions to my brother Jody Lineberry.

I, Kimberly Long, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby leave all the fun and great laughs at lunch to Danny Allred.

I, Wani Logan, leave to my daughter Ms. Coble, my nice sense of humor and my sweetness. (Not my car.)

I, Rebecca Luck, of sound, mind and body, do solomenly give Jennifer a new ride to school next year!

I, Neil Luckett, being of sound, mind and body, leave my calculator and ruler to Elizabeth Griffin.

I, Geneva Lineberry, of sound, mind and body, leave my locker and good luck to Wendy C., Rachel B., Rachel C.

I, Louisa Norton, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my locker #583, to my brother Michael.

I, Anthony "Jug" Matthews leave to my cousin Derrick Matthews, all of my fame and glory to do with whatever he wants to do. Love all the girls, "Cus."

I, Derrick Matthews, leave to the upcoming seniors all my wisdom.

I, John Matthews, leave Rhonda Patterson my good luck and great talent and leave my smartness to Grayland Patterson who will need it in the future.

I, Charlene Mebane, being of sound mind and body, leave everything that can be left to Sharon Glover and my mother, Mrs. Mebane.

I, Emerald Maness, in sound mind and body, leave my parking space to Raygene Co.

I, Cathy Marley, being of sound mind and judgment, give all my happy memories to Regina and Dana.

I, Kelly Martin, leave all my bad grades and empty beer cans out of the car to Mitchel Miller.

I, Julie McCoy, being of sound mind and body, leave to Marie, Tierra, and Lorie, "I hope ya'll have as much fun on your cheerleading squad as I had!"

I, Chun McDaniel, leave all the hard work to anyone else crazy enough to take Physics; and for Troy Bullins, no way to school.

I, Kimberly Jeanette McDaniel, being of sound mind and body, leave all of my good times, memories, and laughter to my cousin, Jimbo McDaniel.

I, Randy McDowell, being of sound mind and body, leave to the rising seniors the ability to be a real man now that all the "real" men are gone!

I, Trudi McGee, leave all of my senior year good times to my sister Sharon.

I, Jennifer Elise Moscato, of irrated mind and competent body, leave Christina Pelech my hair.

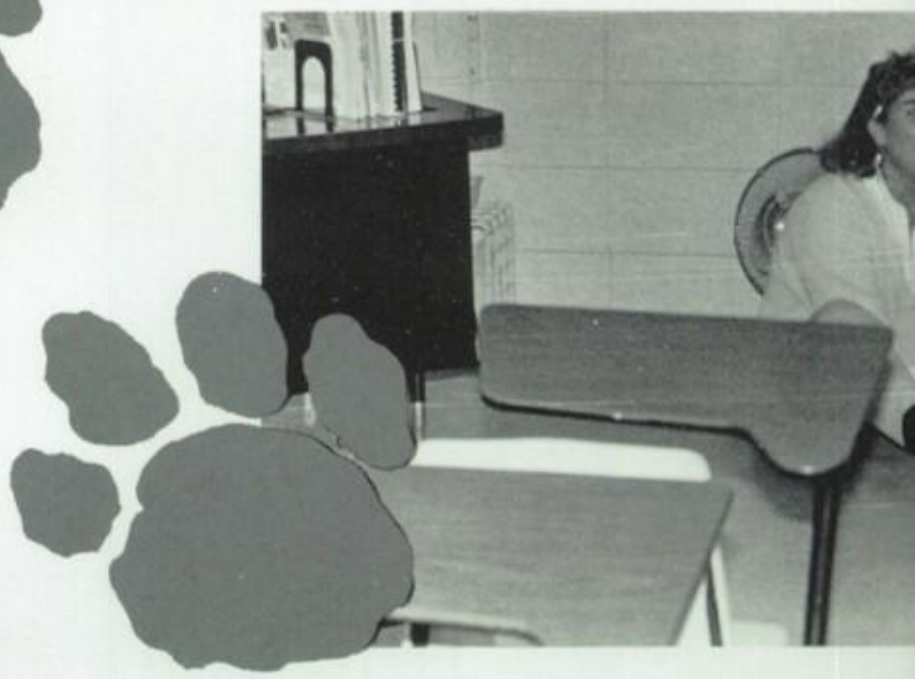
Freshman, Kevin Koenig has a pleasant look on his face as he waits for Freshman pictures to be taken.

Ms. Susan Caviness comments on a student's history project presentation.

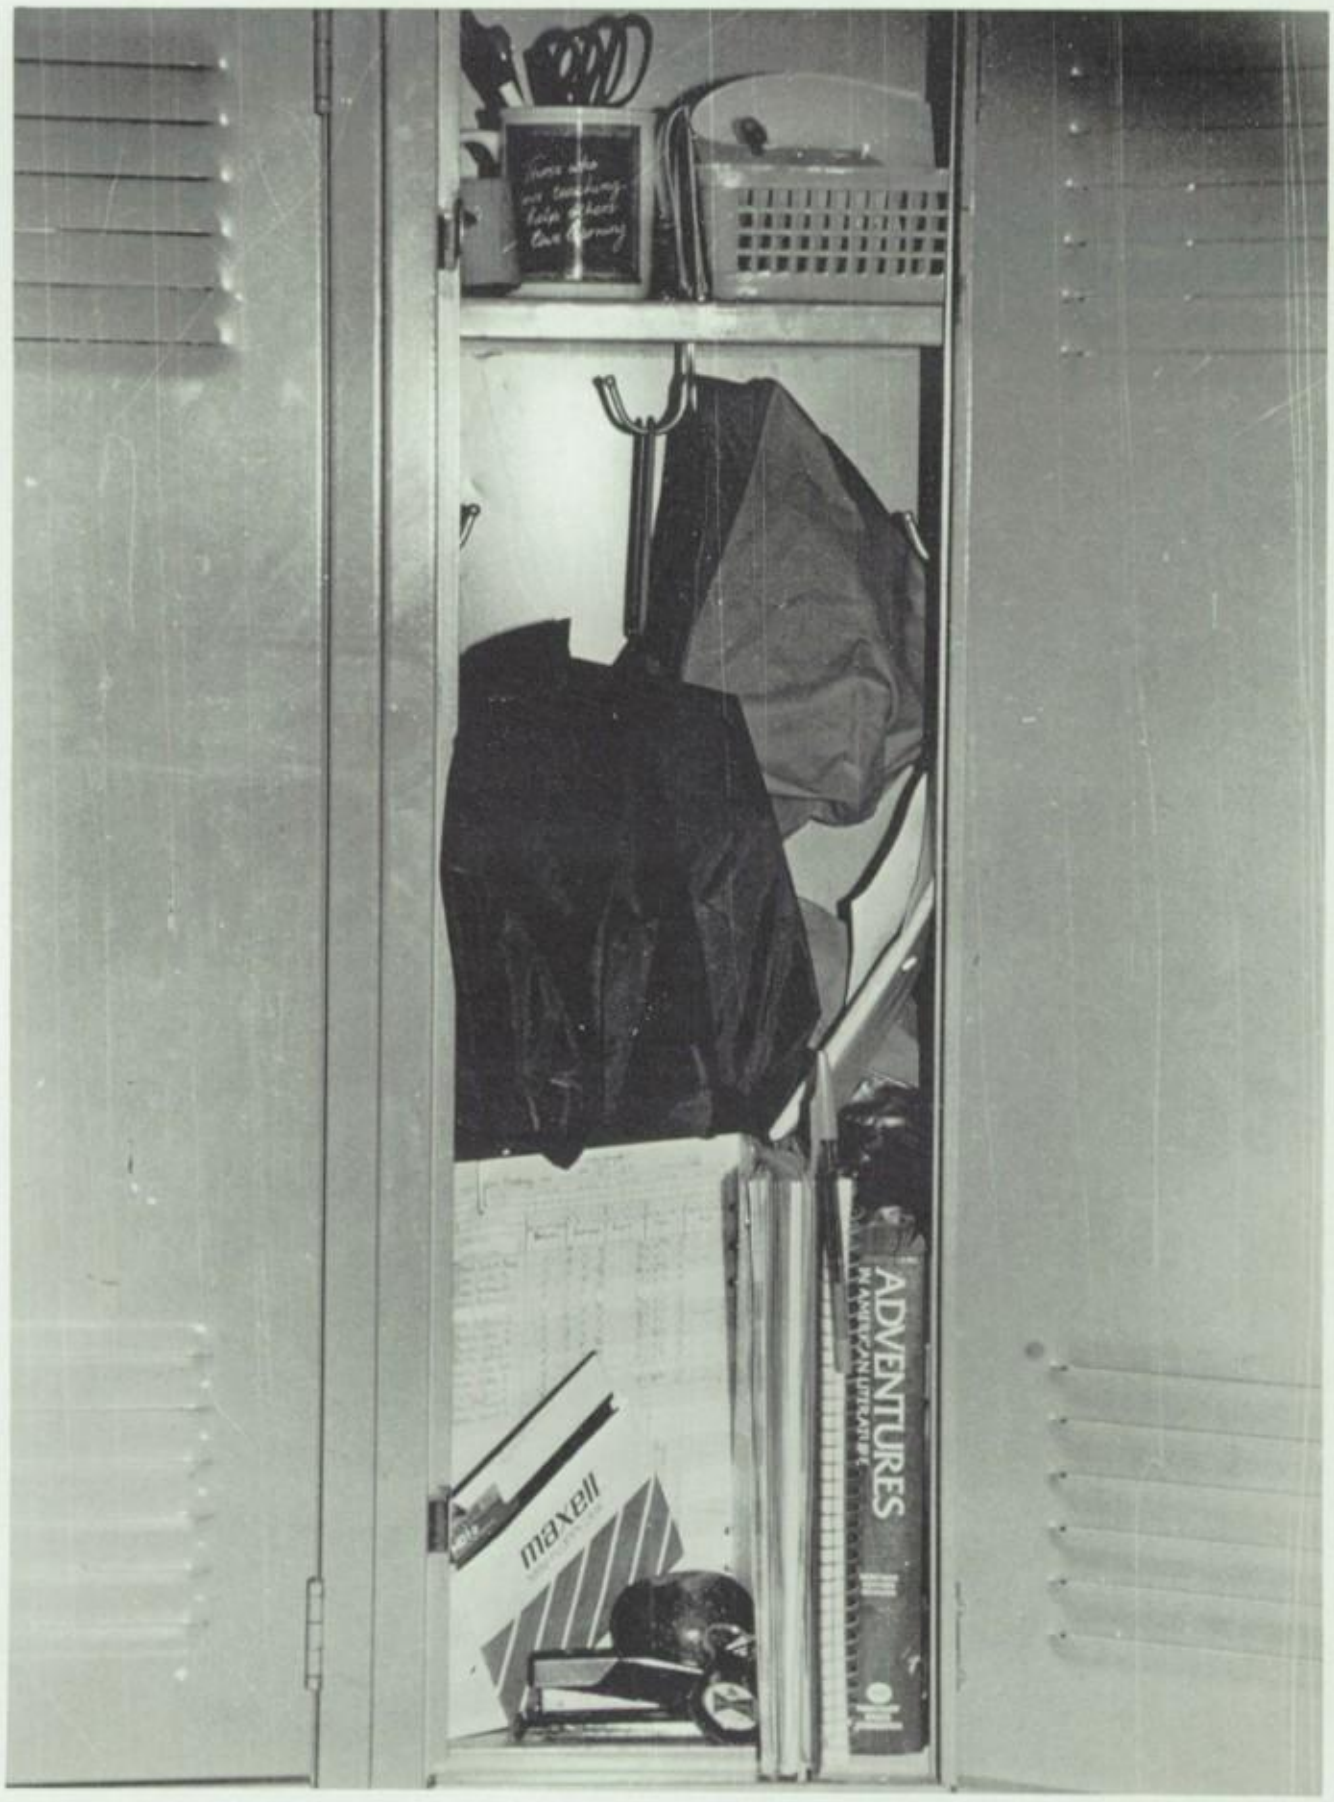


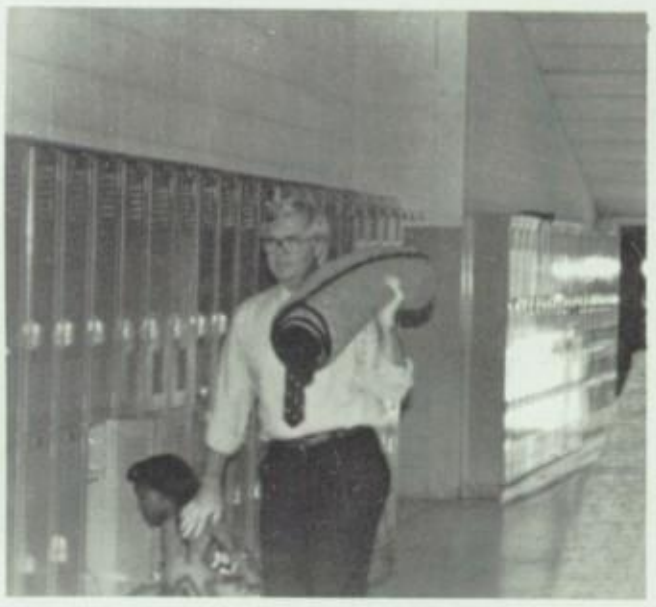
Academics

At Eastern Randolph, there are a variety of classes offered. These include diversities from English, which everyone is required to take, to Aerospace and Advanced Math, which students take to learn more about a particular subject. As one moves up grade levels, classes become more difficult. This is most demonstrated by English, Freshmen take English 9; sophomores, English 10; juniors, English 11; seniors, English 12. This process is carried over in History, Math, and many other departments.

Miss Jennifer Clark keeps records on how many yearbooks were sold.

Some materials used in class include the ones found in this locker.





Mr. Edwards, Vice-Principal, has unusual duties; for example, moving carpet to a new location.

Mr. Hedgecock attends a banquet given by Mrs. Croom's freshman English class.

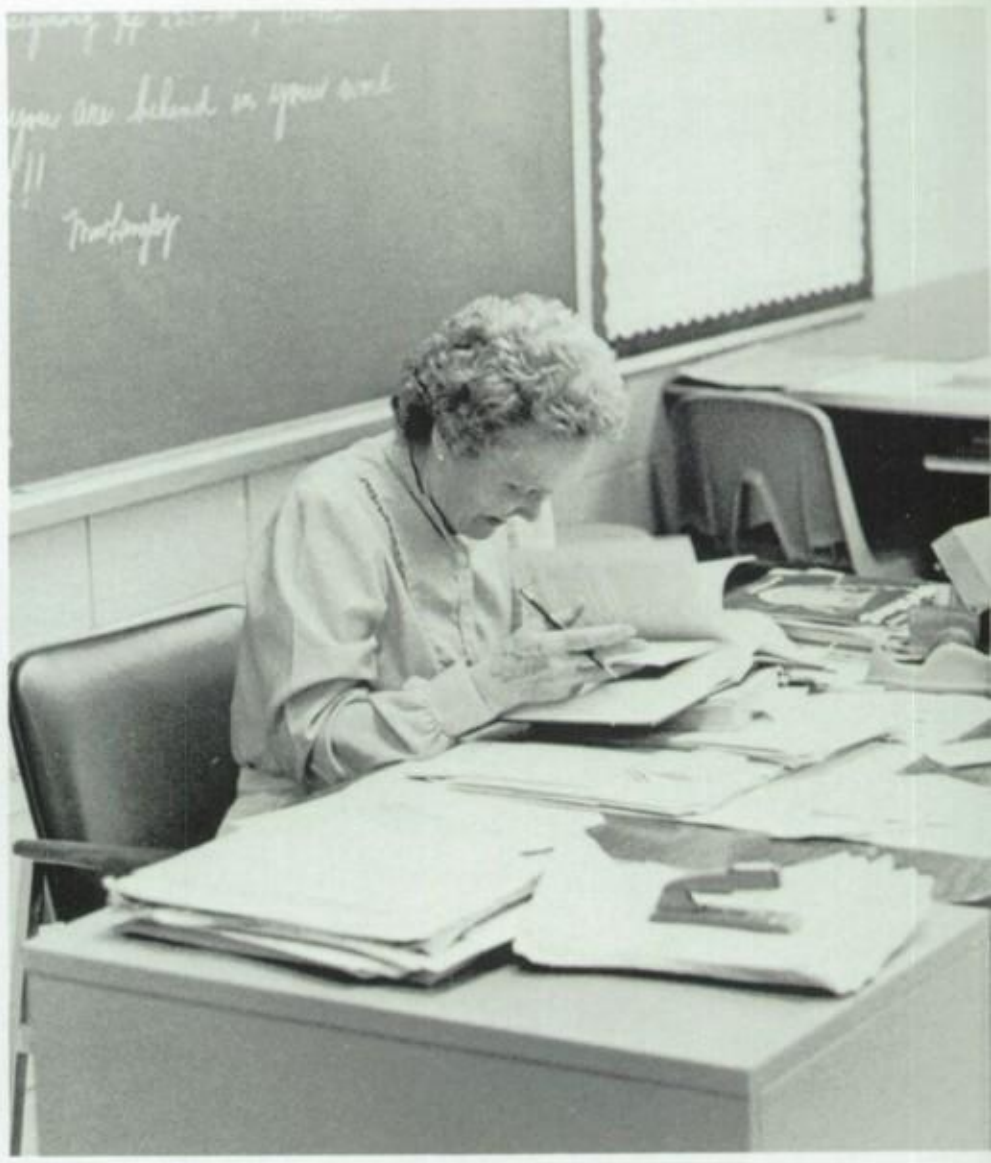
Exploring Great Literature

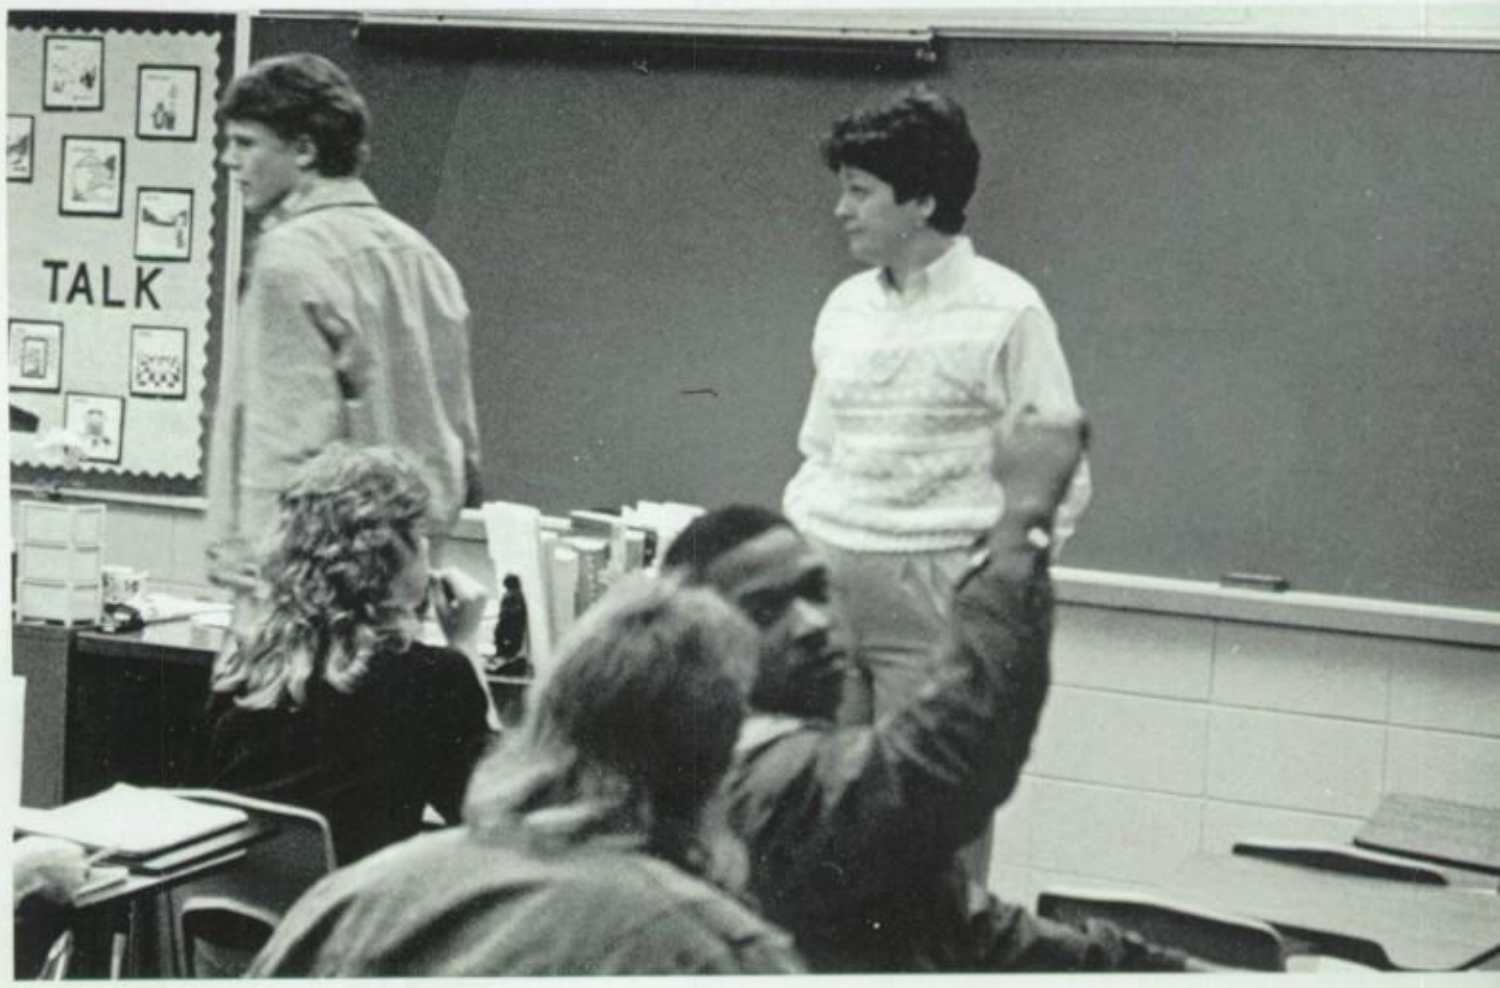
English is a requirement of every student each year. English at Eastern Randolph, means more than simply learning the parts of speech and writing term papers. English students experience the history culture, literature of both American and Britian. Students have the opportunity to watch videos of the classic novels such as The Scarlet Letter and the Odyssey, prepare projects for class, hold Medieval banquets and more! There is never a dull moment in English class at Eastern.

Mrs. Haunton tries to finish her lesson plans during her free period.

Mrs. Rhodes attempts to keep her English class under control.

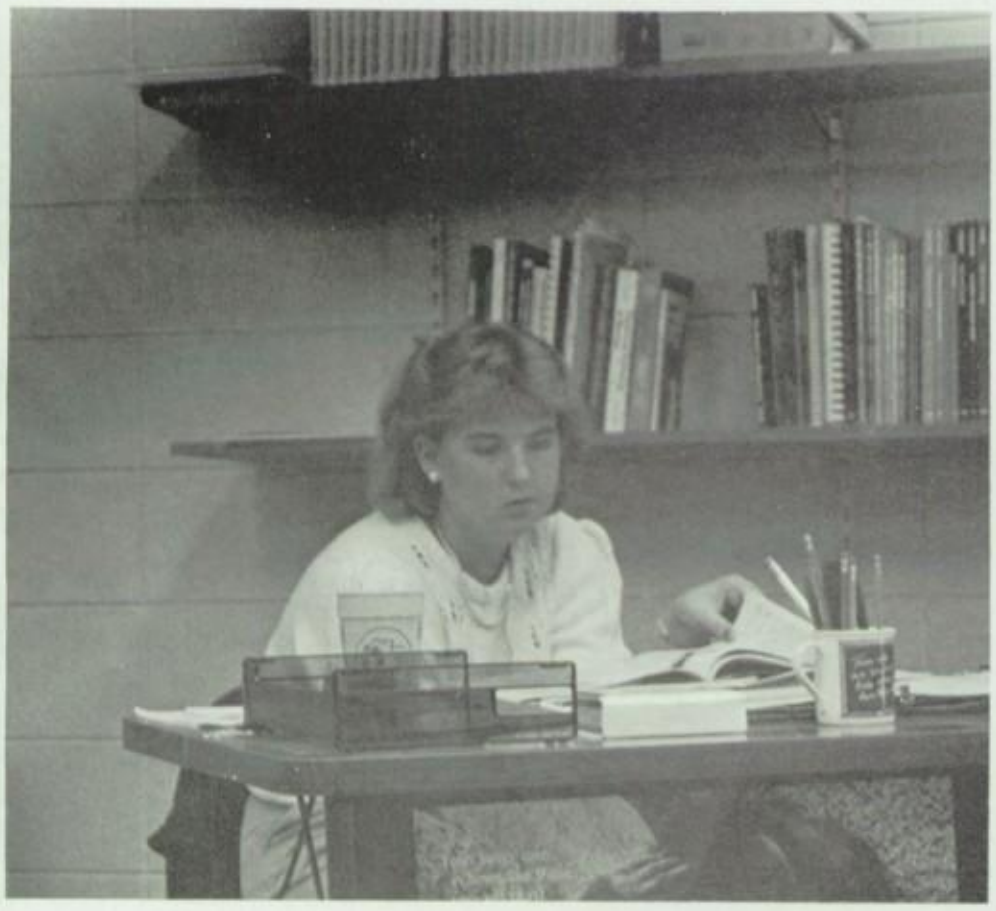
Mrs. Langley watches her study hall students.





Mrs. Croom lectures to a freshman English class.

Mrs. Weeks and her first period Creative Writing class.



Ms. Clark catches up on lesson plans for her reading classes.

A student waits to talk to Ms. Anderson.

Ms. Gant explains how to take one of her English tests.

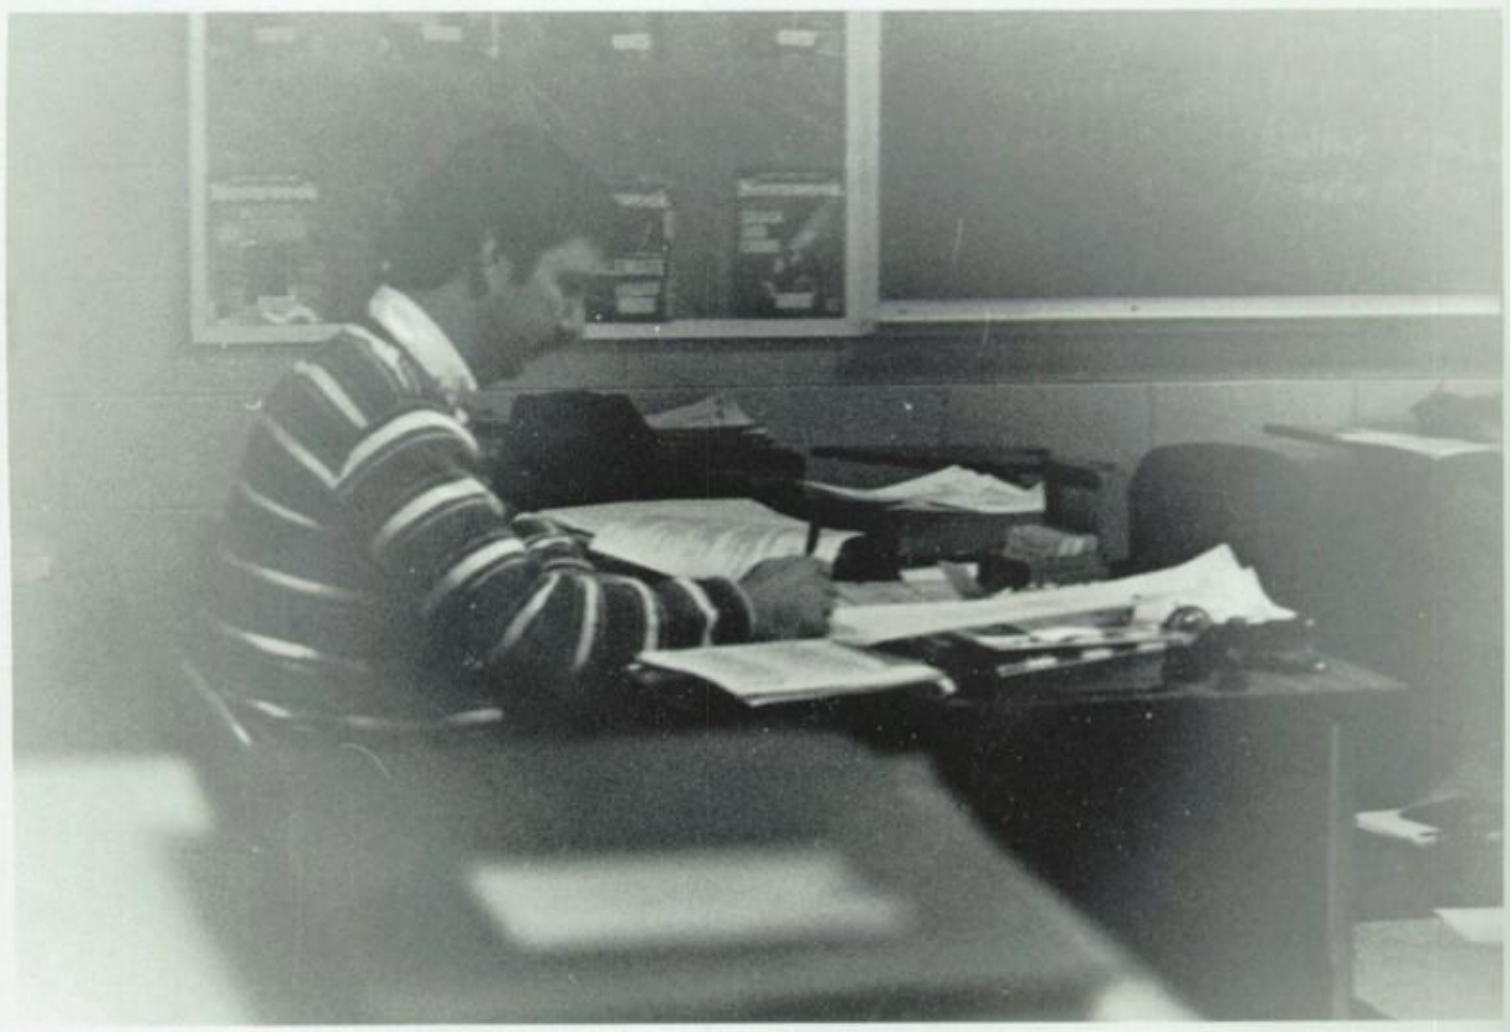
Ms. Bonnie Harrell signs a note for English student.

Mrs. McLean searches for a misplaced item.

History: Recalling The Past

The History Department at Eastern Randolph gives students insight into our nation's past history as well as keeping students informed of current events. The history teachers use every source available to keep students interested; film strips, movies, videos, and participating in group activities keep students interested. The history classes include U.S. History, Civics, Economics, Wars and Russian Culture, Comparative political and Economic Systems, and U.S. History Since 1945.

Ms. Susan Caviness tells students about a Catspaw presentation they are about to see.



Mr. Gurgainus grades tests after a long day of work.

Mr. Crawford explains an economic theory to his class.

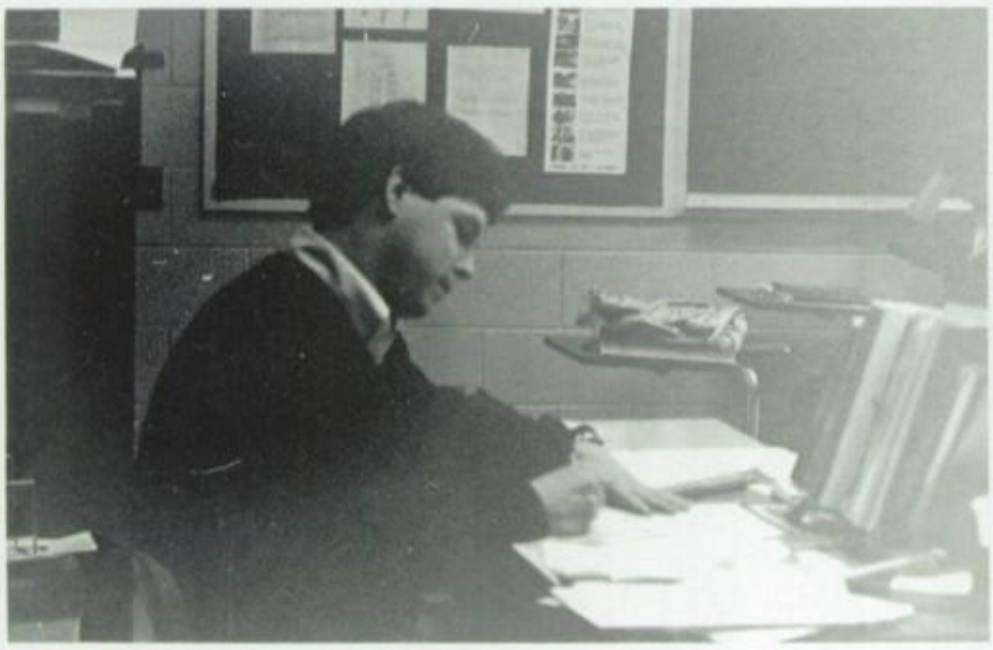
Mrs. Dyson lectures to a U.S. History class while they take notes.

Mr. Wooten reads to his class from their text book.

Students in Mrs. Caviness' class participate in a group project.

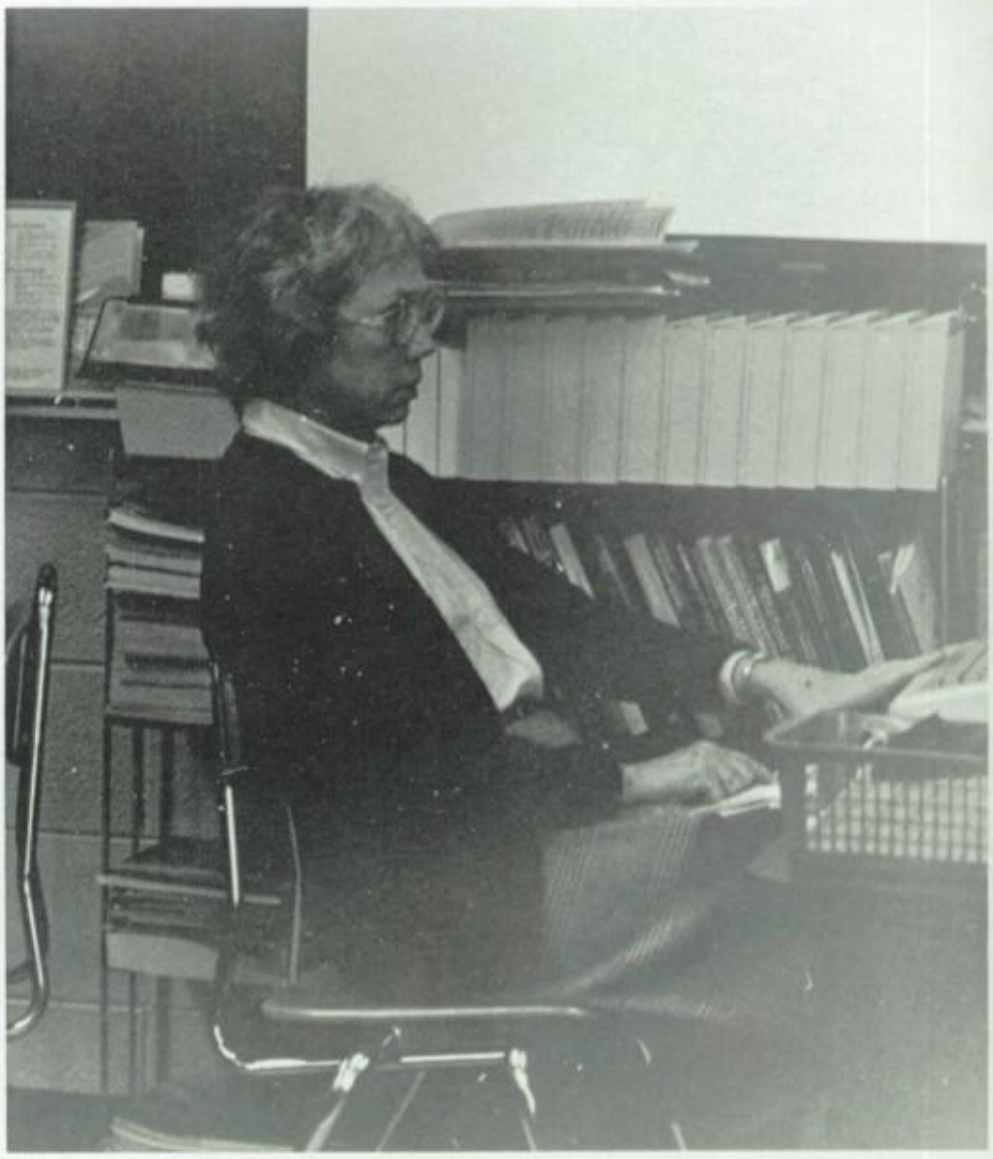
Math Has Variety

The Math Department at Eastern Randolph includes classes in Pre Algebra, Algebra, Geometry, Algebra II, Advanced Math, (Computer class), Business and consumer math. In Algebra I and Algebra II, students learn about formulas and theroms. In Geometry, students learn about geometric figures and their relationships. Students learn trigonometry and calculus in Advanced math. In Introduction to computers, students learn how to program computers and data processing.



Mr. Maness takes attendance before class.

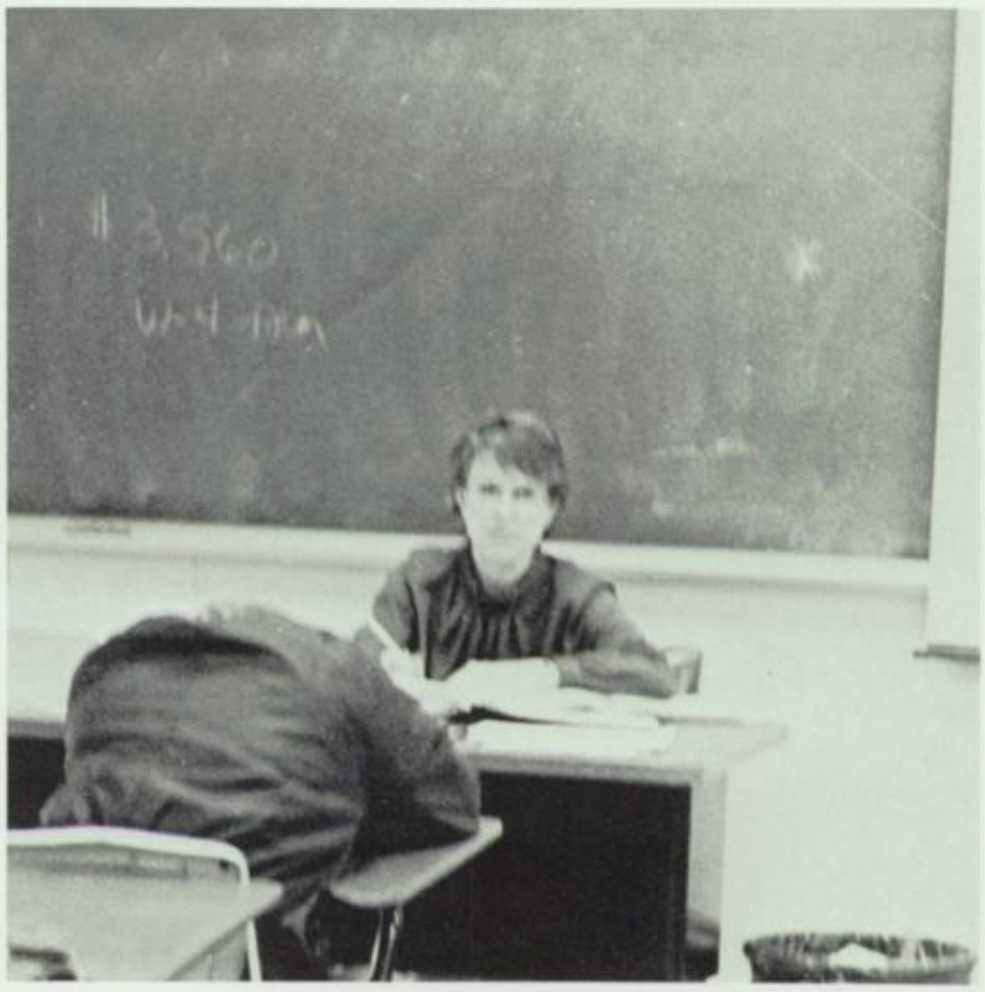
Mr. Brower takes a break before class begins.



Mrs. Rooks analyzes a bus in a computer program.

Mr. Johnson explains an algebra problem to a student.

Ms. Smith watches over her math class.



Mrs. Harrell answers a student's question during class.

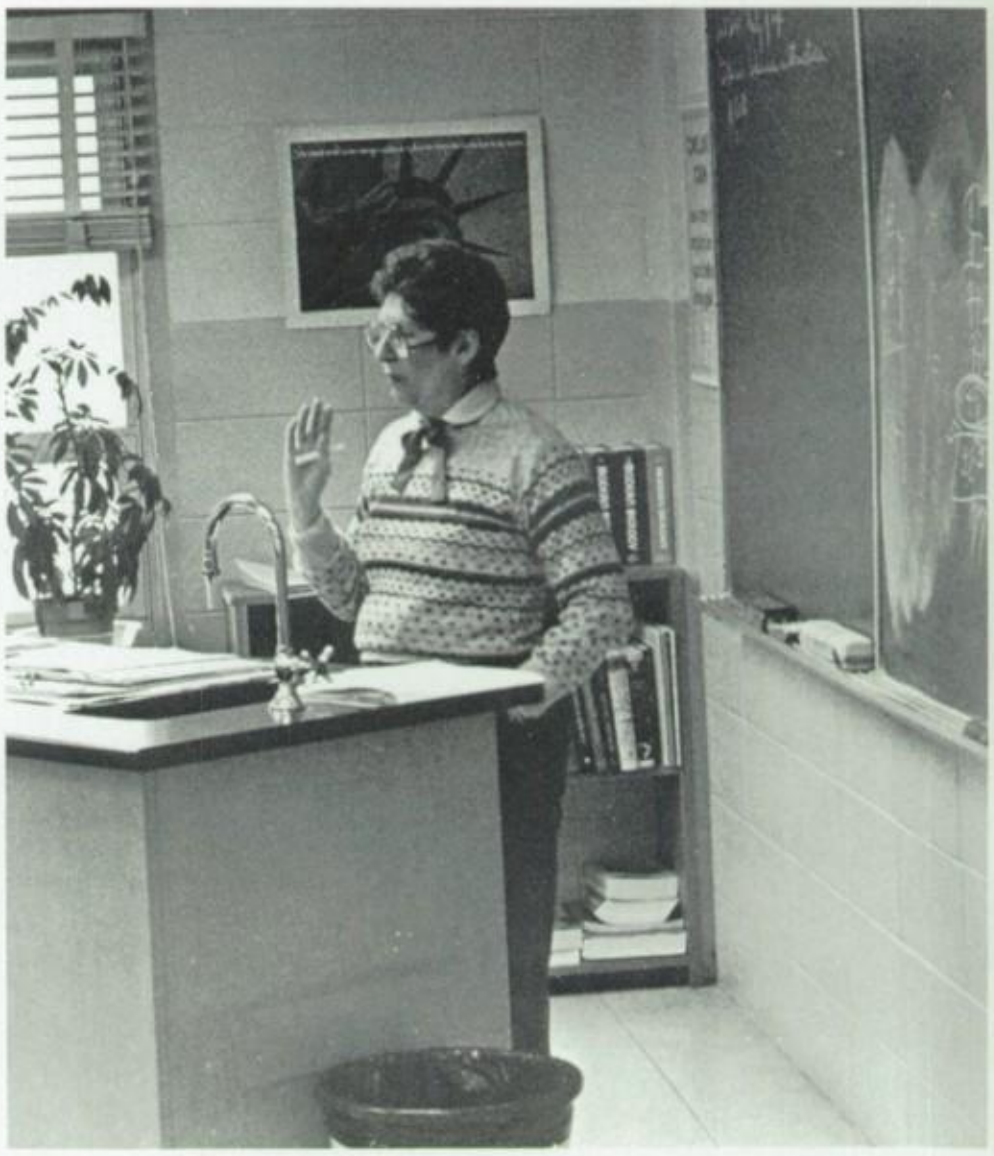
Mr. Hardin lectures to his class about rules they must obey.

Science — Study of Knowledge

The science department at Eastern Randolph includes Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry, Human Anatomy, Physology, and Physics. In physical science, chemistry, and Physics, students learn about the properties of elements and laws of science by doing lab work. In Biology, students learn about animals by disecting lab specimens. Human Anatomy and Physology is a new class this year at Eastern Randolph; students learn about the many functions of the body.

Mr. Baker checks attendance in Biology class.

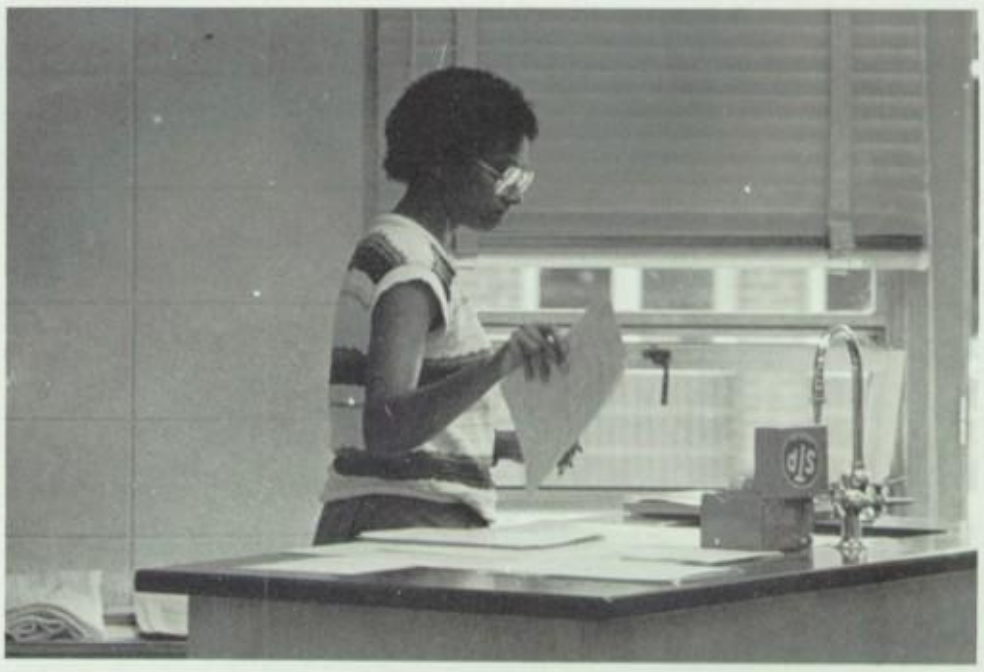
Mrs. Shaw lectures to her Biology class.



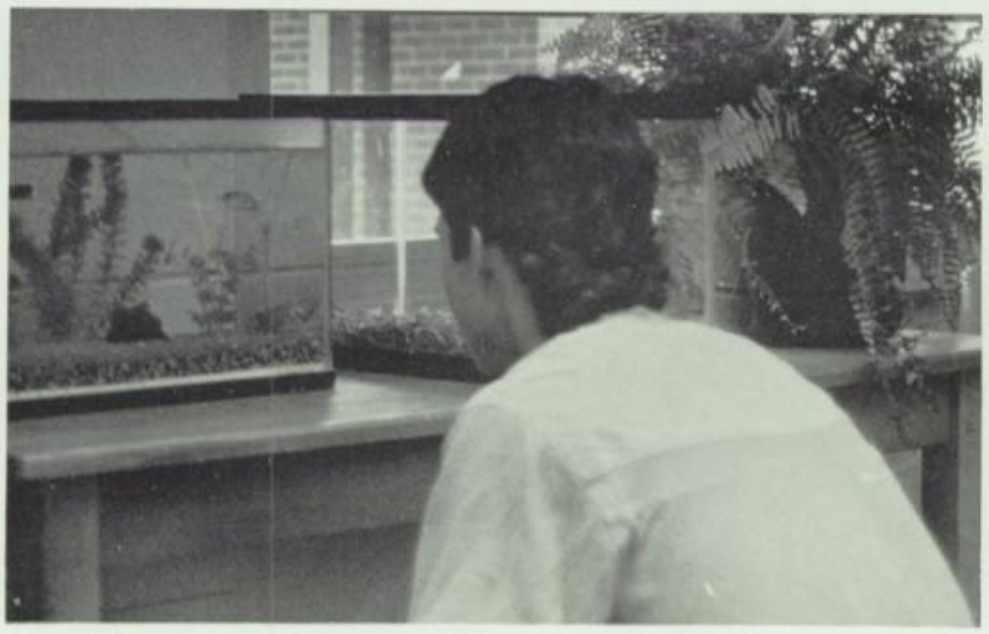
Mr. Allen distributes a test to Human Anatomy and Physology students.

Chemistry students work in the lab to learn about properties of the elements.

Mrs. Mebane lectures to her Physical Science class while they take notes.



Ms. Confer's Physics students write their classwork.



Biology students take a break at the end of class to watch the fish in Mr. Allen's aquarium.

Health and P.E. Has Something For Everyone

The Health and Physical Education classes at Eastern Randolph offer a good education in physical conditioning. During the freshman year, students are required to take Health and Physical Education. This allows students to experience a wide range of sports. Some of the sports that are offered to students in P.E. class are football, softball, volleyball, and soccer. In Health, students cover a variety of subjects such as drugs, alcohol, sex education and first aide.

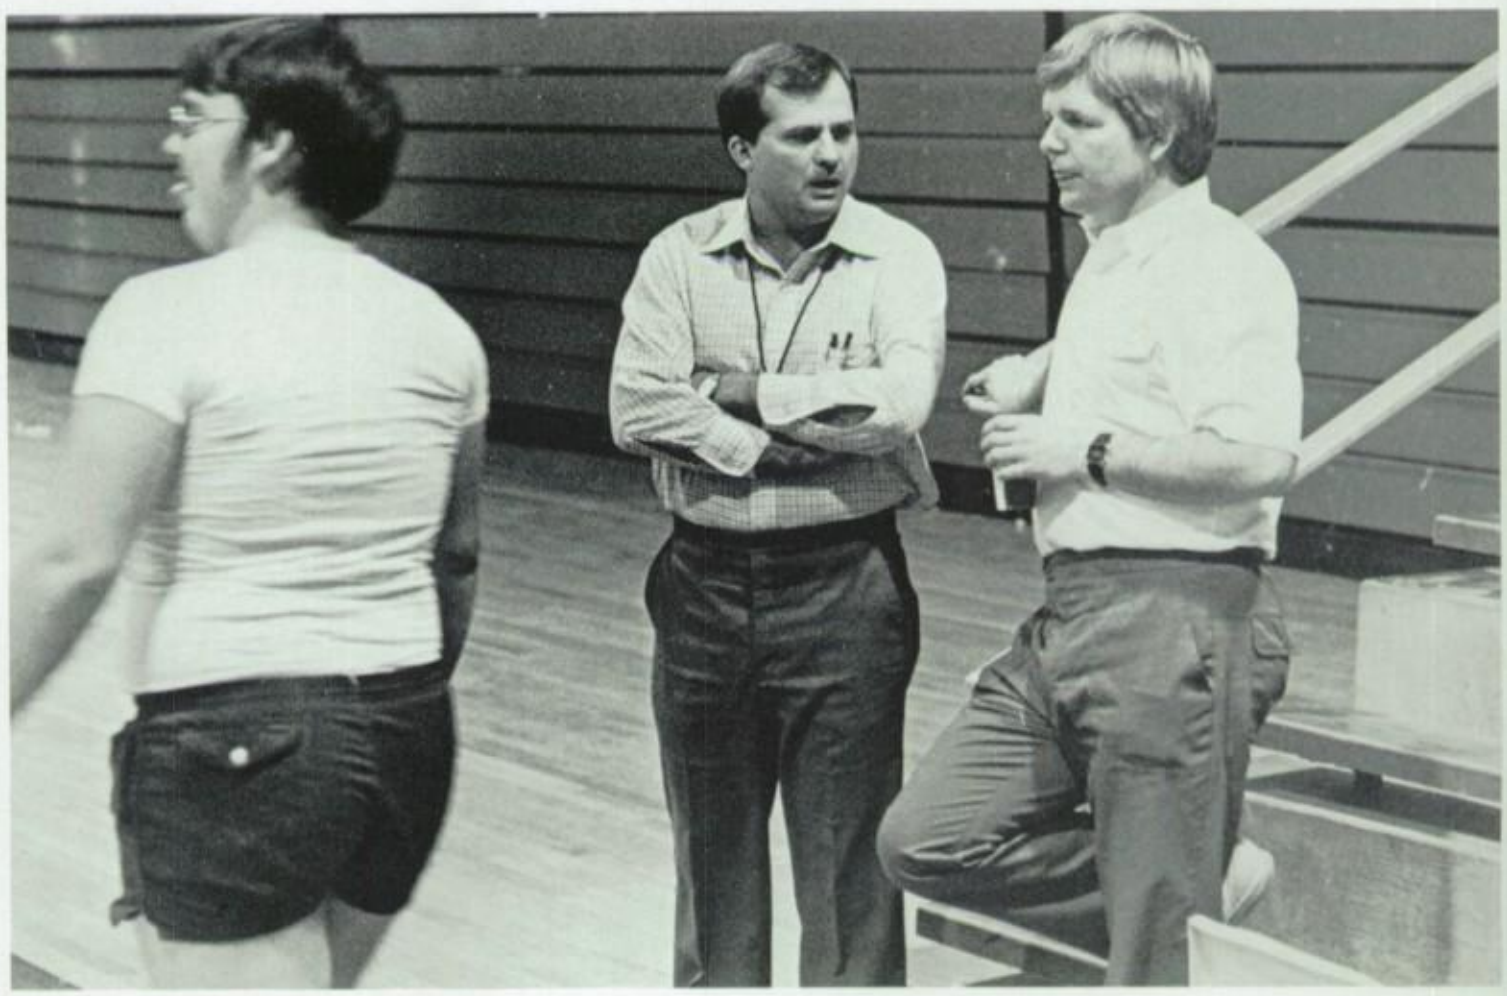
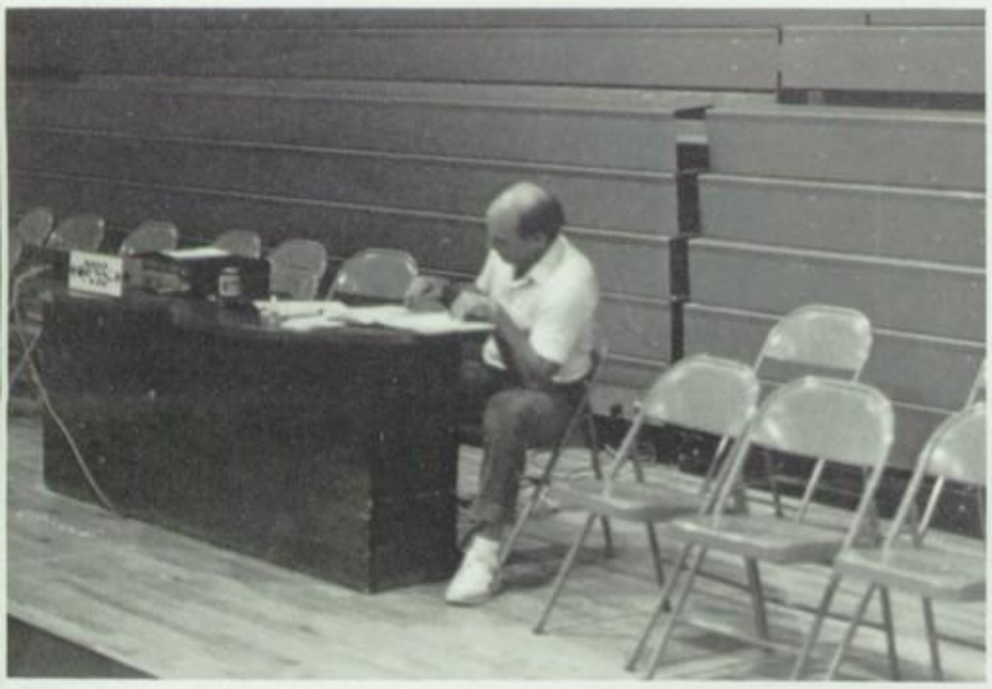
Coach Cates and Baker discuss this year's crop of freshmen.





Mr. Oliver keeps records before a meeting begins.

Ms. Welch observes her P.E. class.

Freshmen play basketball during P.E.

Students work out during weightlifting class.

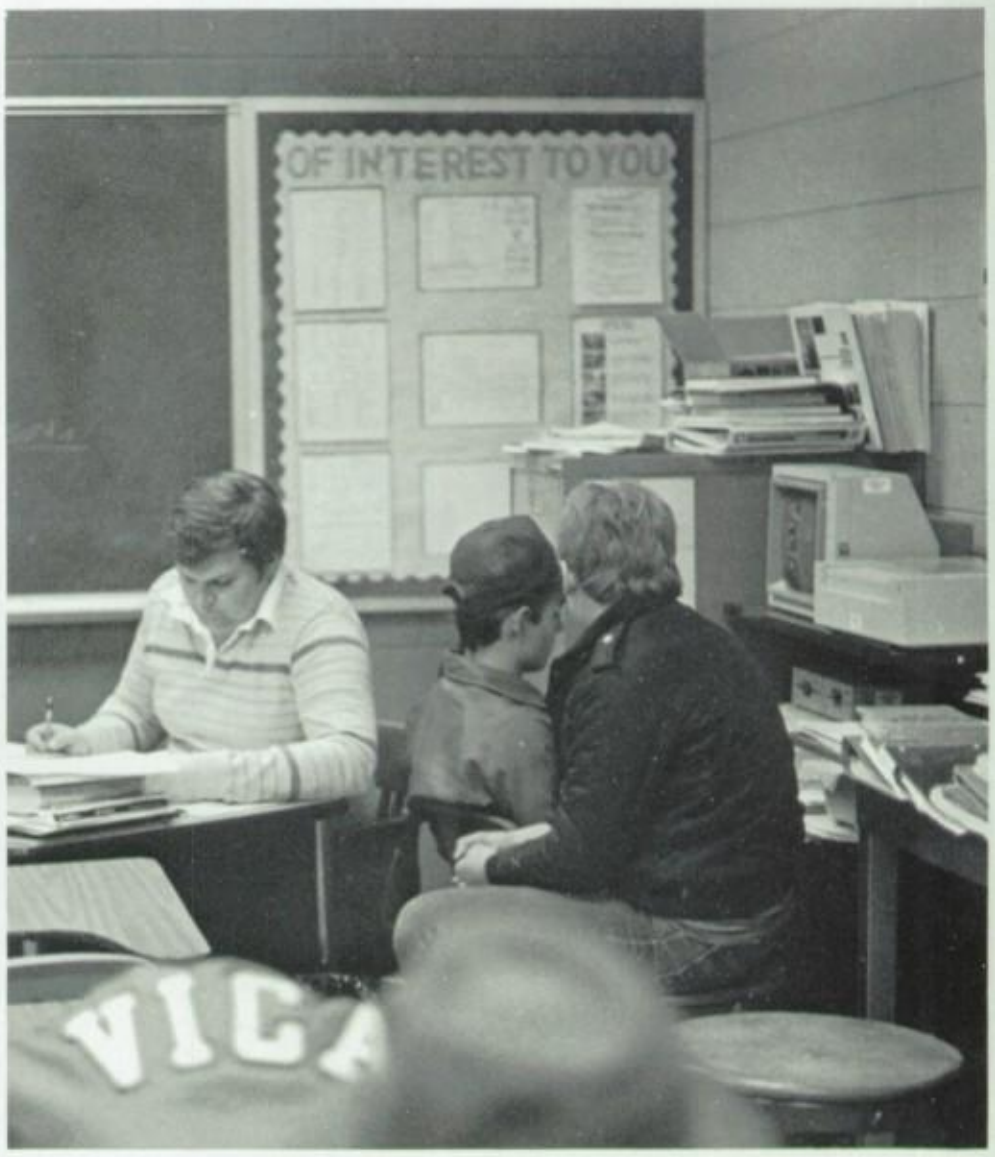
Jennifer Hearndon take a rest after a workout in P.E.

Preparing For The Future

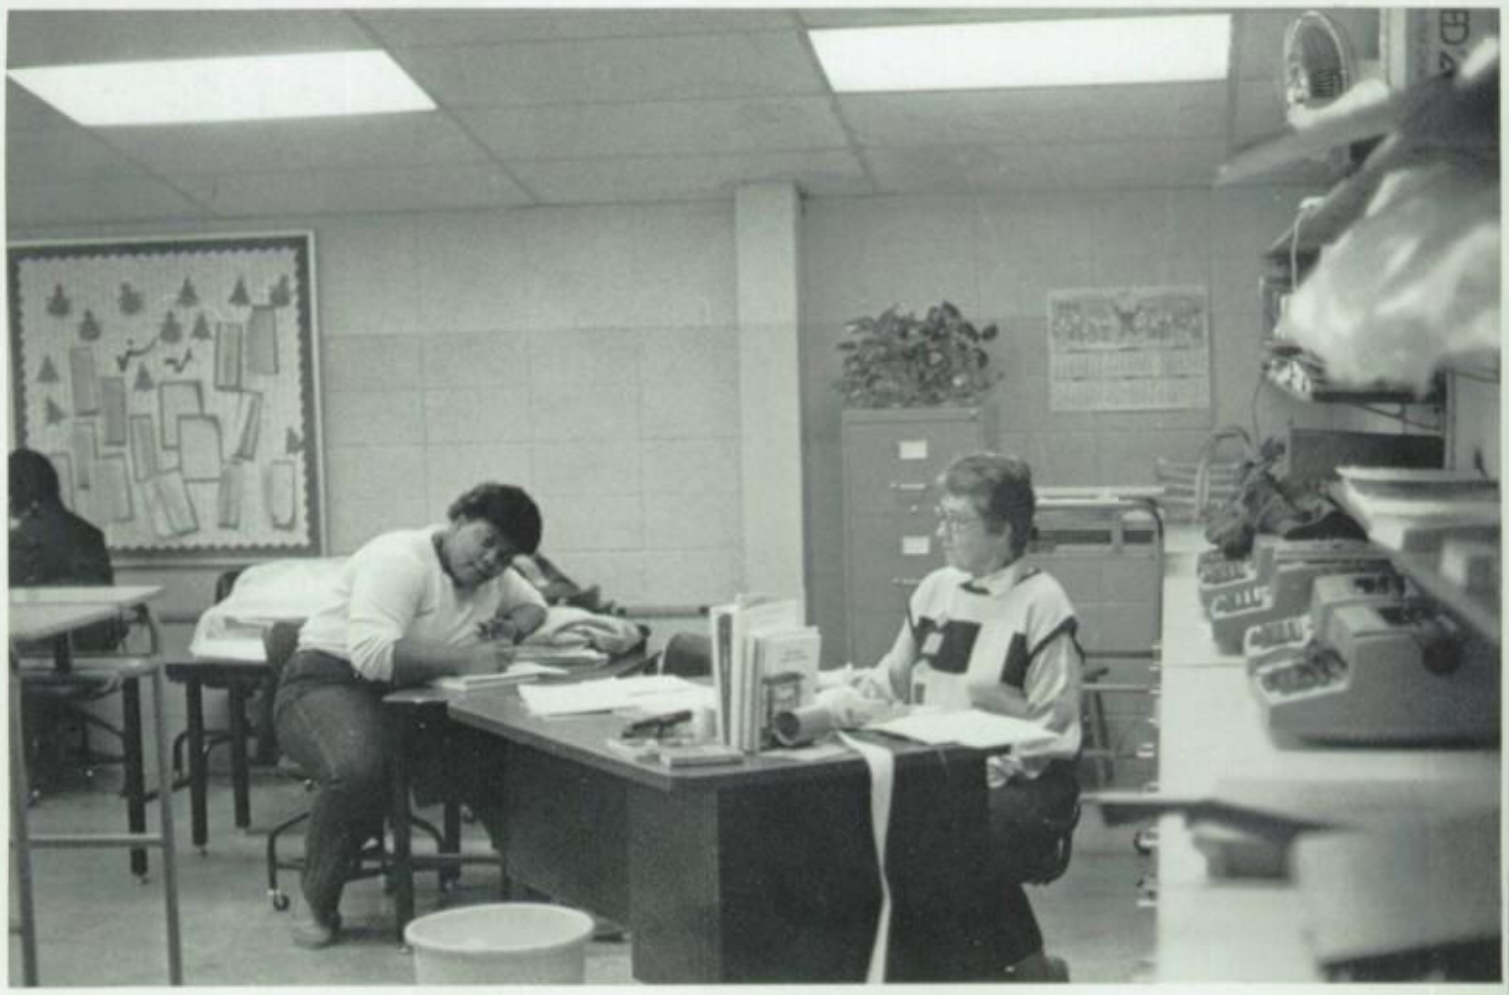
The vocational department at Eastern Randolph High School gives each student the opportunity to prepare for a career in vocations. There are course in agriculture, bricklaying, carpentry, technical drawing, aerospace, typing, shorthand, accounting, home economics, and Hands-and-Minds. Students learn how to grow and identify plants in the Agriculture classes. The carpentry and bricklaying classes cooperate together in building a house. The Aerospace classes learn to fly an airplane, as well as having a chance to build a plane! The typing, shorthand, and accounting classes help students prepare for an office job. Working together, the vocational department helps many students prepare for the future.

Mr. Lane helps students with project during Ag. Mechanics.

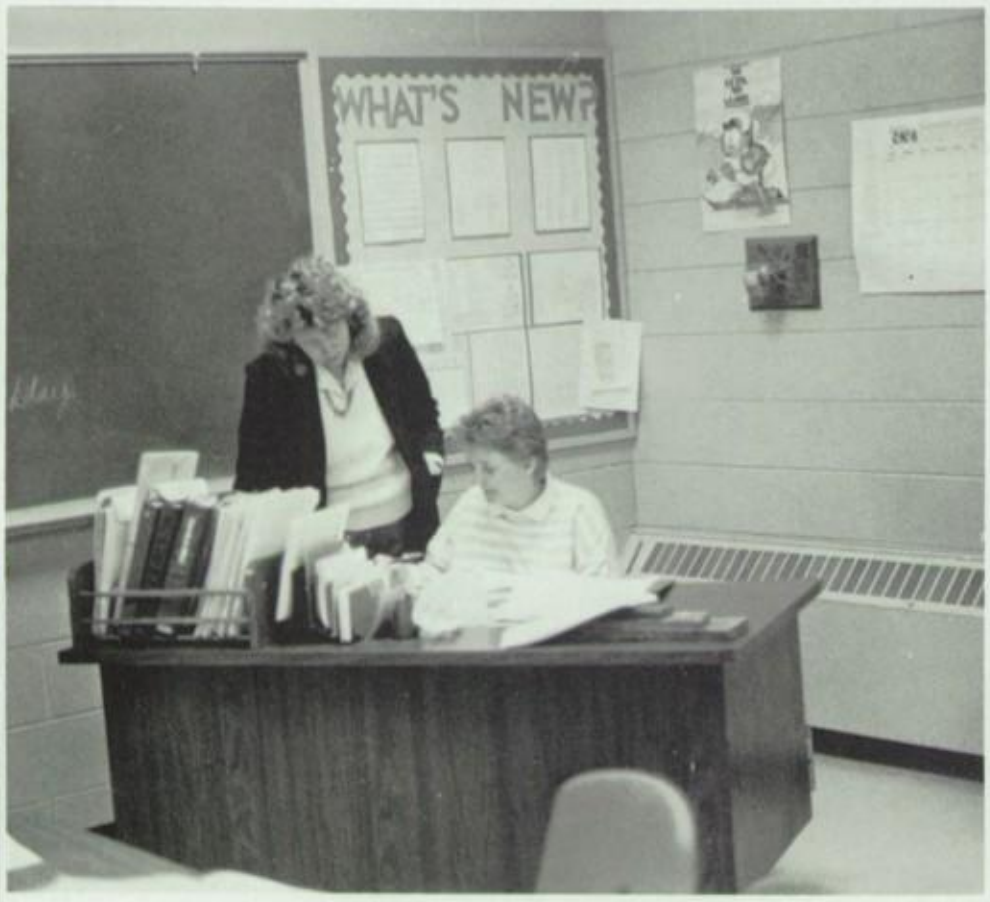
Mr. Caviness looks at some of the test papers while students keep themselves occupied.



Mrs. Gaviness averages grades while students watch.



Ms. Moore helps students with assignment.



Mr. Culbreth watches students work on airplane.

Mrs. Hardin shows Ms. Keller what to tell her students to do.

Mr. Hampton lectures students during class.

Ms. Merabile waits as her picture is being taken.

Mrs. Parker tries to keep students under control.

Foreign Language is a Challenge

Being a part of the foreign language department at Eastern is a special treat for students. In Ms. Bennett and Ms. Shoun's classrooms, students experience the language culture, and history of France and Spain.

Each year, French II students go to a French restaurant to sample French cuisine. They also have a chance to prepare a meal themselves as a class project. This year French and Spanish classes attended the concert of a rock singer from Quebec, and a rock group from Spain. In Spanish class, students focus on the language, culture, and history of the Spanish speaking countries.

This year, Spanish students also performed original Spanish commercials and prepared Spanish foods for class.

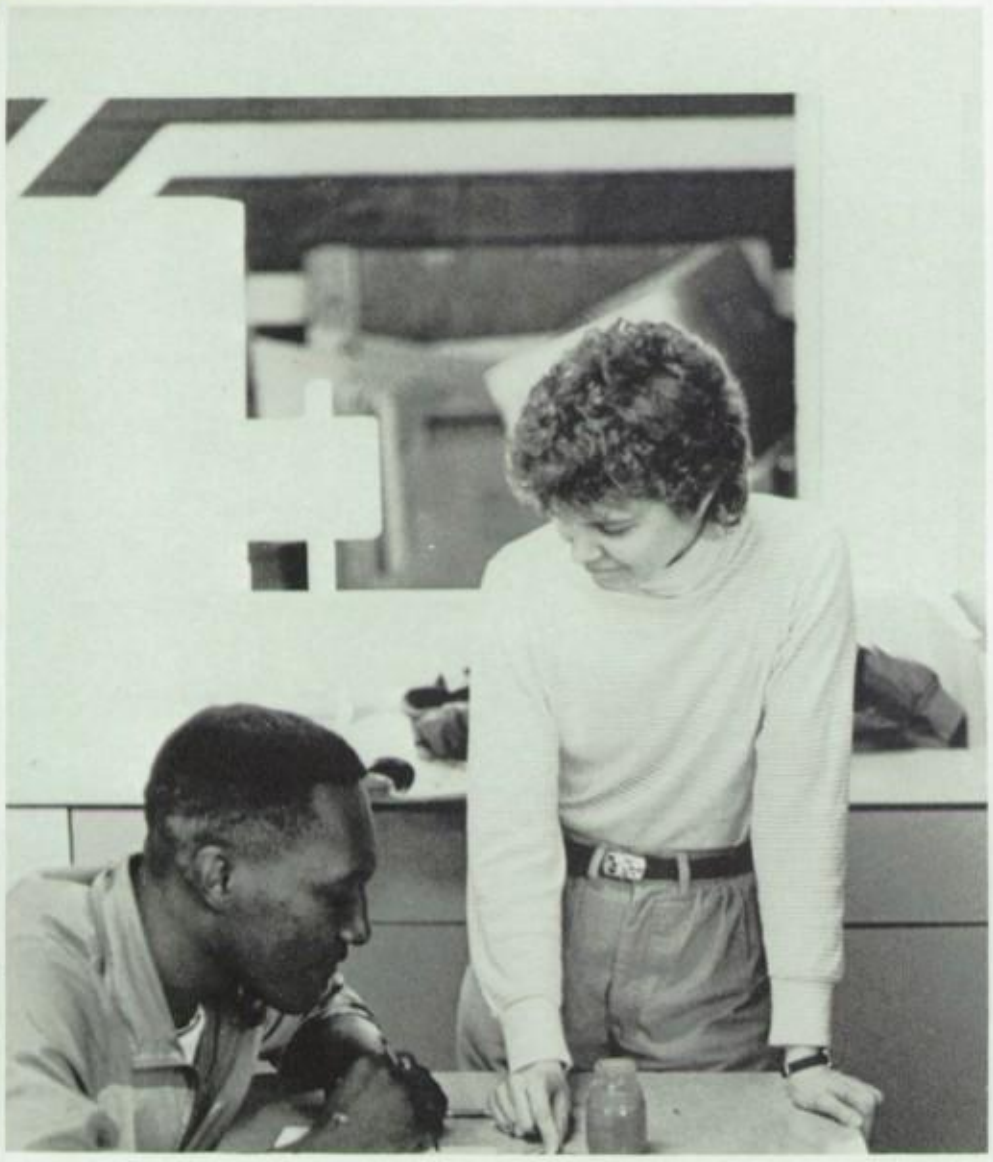
Also, Spanish students broke a piñata in class and went to Casa Gallardo to sample Spanish food.

Studying hard is a major requirement in French class.

Mrs. Benett protests having her picture taken during class.

Ms. Shouns takes role before beginning her lecture in Spanish class.

Mrs. Spivey works with students in her Art class.



Art, An Outlet For Talent

The Art Department at Eastern Randolph allows students to enhance their artistic talents. Mrs. Spivey provides a broad curriculum for her art students which leads to their appreciation of art. Students study artists of the past and present, discuss proportions, color, light, shading and other techniques of art. Mrs. Spivey's students also spend lots of time sketching, painting, and working with clay.

Art students goof off during class.

Art students during class.

The Song Continues

Eastern Randolph's Choral Department consists of three groups: Mixed Chorus, Lyric Chorus, and Choral Ensemble. Each one of these groups are very busy all year long. Mixed Chorus, which has 65 members in all, performed in the spring.

Lyric Chorus, which is an all girl group, consists of 17 members. This group also participates in the fall, and Christmas concerts. Lyric Chorus also with other schools in a Choral Festival contest and performs at area churches.

Choral Ensemble, which is also an auditioned group, consists of 17 members. They perform for numerous schools, church, and community groups throughout the year.

Ms. Goodson practices piano before class begins.

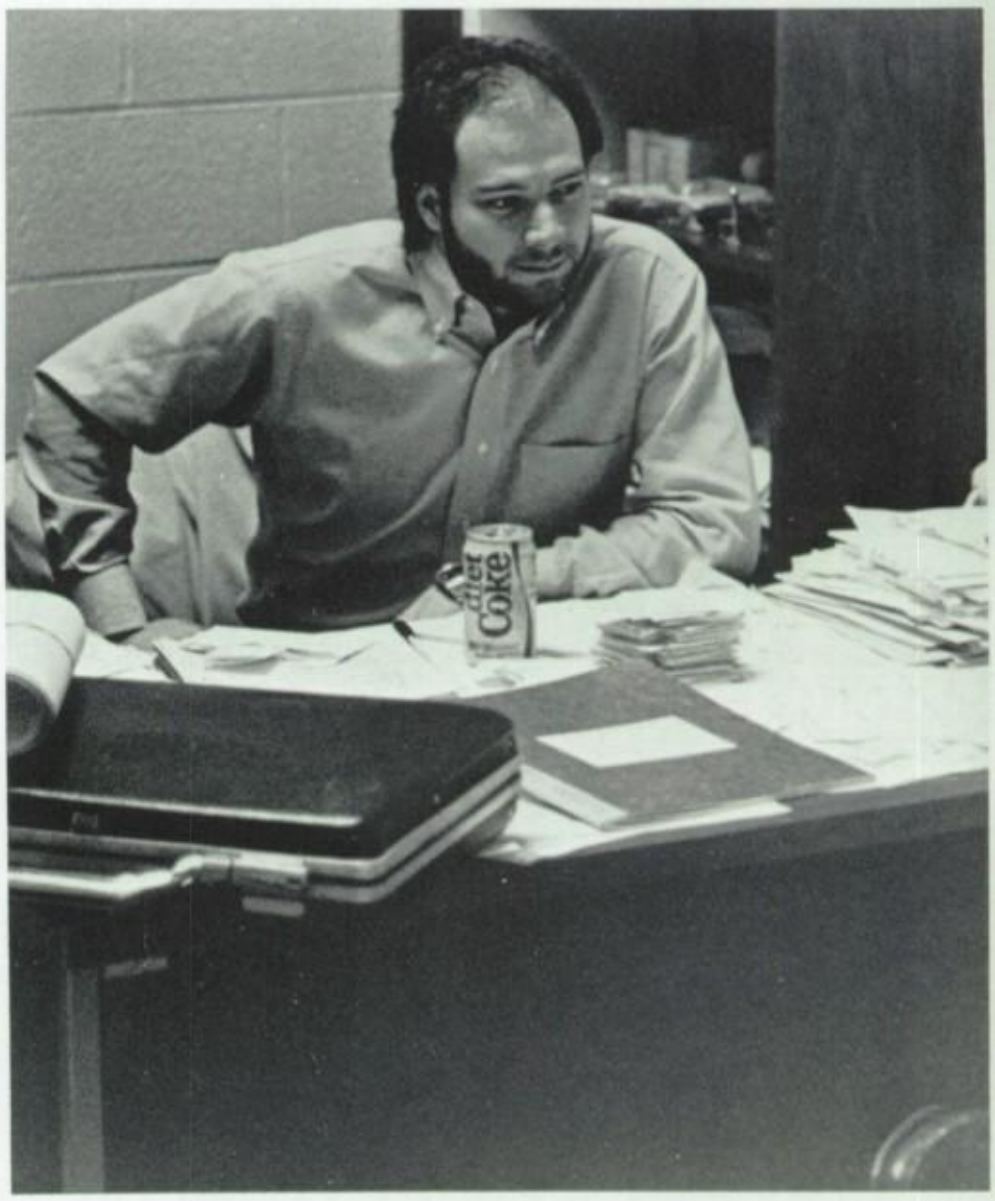
Practice Makes Perfect

There is one group of students who are always busy at ER. During the year, the band participates in many activities. Many long hours of rehearsal are put in before each performance. Some of the competitions that the band participates in are: Northwest Guilford Marching Band Festival, Trinity Marching Band Festival, and Richmond County Raider Classic. Besides competing at festivals, the band plays for all home football games, and they march in the Liberty and Franklinville Christmas parades. The band also gives annual Christmas and Spring concerts. Members of the band will also play in the orchestra for the musical "Oklahoma." The Jazz Ensemble performs for the feeder schools and the community. The Jazz Ensemble and the Concert Band will take a trip in May to perform at the Capitol in Washington, D.C.



Benji Springs thinks about the band's accomplishments this year.

Yearbook

Each year at Eastern Randolph, there is one exciting class where things are always chaotic and very hectic. This year's Links staff of 13 was greeted by a new advisor. Yearbook class begins long before the first day of school in August. Beginning in July, the staff was busy selling ads to raise money. Steven Wicker and Carla Nixon, co-editors of the yearbook along with Ms. Clark, attended a Yearbook Workshop at Wake Forest University in August. Once school began in late August, the pressure of meeting the first deadline began! In October, students were given a chance to purchase their yearbook for 1987. Everyone anxiously awaited the arrival of their book.

Brent Zerfoss, Lisa Passarini, Steven Wicker, Lisa Burns, and Carla Nixon discuss ideas for the new yearbook.

Paw Print Keeps Up Tradition

This year, "The Paw Print," with a more experienced staff and cooperation from the student body, has been very successful. New features and more in-depth articles have been added to the paper, making the "Paw Print" more interesting for both students and faculty. The most exciting new feature has been the editorial column. Students can now submit their opinions on certain subjects which are then printed in the paper.

The journalism staff has planned several trips this year. The "Paw Print" staff visited the radio station KISS — FM, NEWS — 2, and the Greensboro News and Record. A trip to Columbia, South Carolina to the Southern Interscholastic Press Association is also planned. Three issues of the "Paw Print" will be submitted in a competition against papers from other schools at the Interscholastic Press Association meeting in Columbia.

SPORTS

Athletics are an important part of school life at Eastern Randolph. Participating in sports gives students a chance to improve themselve athletically, as well as representing their school. E.R. athletics, under the direction of Mr. Burtonates, offers ten different sports for students to choose from. Each year there are many exciting moments for athletes and fan. This past year, our Varsity football team and both Varsity Basketball teams made the playoffs! E.R. had it's first State Champion Wrestler, along with many other individual and team records that were set. E.R. is very proud of its athletic program.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders are a vital part of the success of Eastern Randolph's athletic program. Being a good cheerleader is not an easy task. It requires a great deal of time including a week-long summer camp. With only one returning varsity cheerleader this year the girls had to work extra hard in learning new cheers and working together.

This group of girls were very creative having pep rallies such as "Wheel of Fortune," Beach the Comets Day and Mock Homecoming. Hopefully, their cheers showed our athletes the school spirit and support. Robin Cox is the sponsor for the Varsity Cheerleader. Rose Marie Odom is the sponsor for the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. They too have spent a great deal of their time to help the cheerleaders with the activities they provided for us at the pep rallies.

The 1986-87 Varsity Cheerleaders are: Julie McCoy, chief; Audrey Coble, Tracy Waugh, Aretha Graham, Lori Allred, Marie Beal, Tara Williams.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders are: Christy Wright, co-chief; Jennifer Underwood, co-chief; Jenny Cruthfield, Christy Bearden, Jennifer York, Kim Holliday, and April Russell.

Cats Make Playoffs!

The 1986 Varsity Football Team finishes up their season with an overall record of 6-5. Their conference record was 5-2, which placed them in a second place tie with Burlington Williams. This impressive record led them into the first round of the Mid-State playoffs against a tough Western Guilford team. The Varsity Cats suffered a disappointing 20-15 loss. Leading the Cats this season were All Conference selections Connie Foxx, lineman; Willis Brown, running back; Anthony Matthews, quarterback; Wani Logan, defensive back; Tony Bartell, running back; David Wright, lineman; David Freeman, lineman; and David Ritter, line backer. The Varsity Football team was coached by Burton Cates

Lady Cats Make State Playoffs

The 1986-87 Varsity Girls Basketball Team had an exciting season. The teams's overall season record was 13-11. Highlights of the season include comeback victories over Jordan Matthews and Asheboro, along with conference wins over W. Alamance and S. Alamance. However the most memorable game for the Lady Cats was defeating 20-0 South Johnston by a score of 57-47 in the State Playoffs!

Leading the 1986-87 team was senior Laura Hooker. Laura was the Most Valuable Player and All-Conference pick. Head Coach David Gurganius was pleased with the entire team and their effort and especially by the outstanding play of seniors Tab Mason, Pebble Isley, and Laura Cheek.

Seniors Lead Varsity Cats

The 1986-87 Varsity Boys Basketball Team had a season to be proud of. After a slow start and a few adjustments early in the season, the Varsity Cats came on strong in the end. The teams overall record this season was 12-13. Coach John Maness gave credit to his senior players for providing the leadership that was necessary to have a successful season. Coach Maness was also pleased with the strong play from his bench. "The guys accomplished a lot this year and have a lot to be proud of." said Maness. A special Congratulations went out to senior Rodney Willson for scoring 1081 points this season. Few people have accomplished this feat at E.R. The season highlights were beating Cummings in 2 out of 3 games, making the second round of the all conference Tournament at Elon College where they lost to Bartlet Yancy by only one point. The first round of the Regional Tournament, the Cats beat High Point Andrews 73-76.

Head Coach Greg Hardin was pleased with his entire teams' hard work and effort this season. He was especially proud of sophomore Shane Long. "This year's wrestling team was fairly young overall with a few excellent seniors providing leadership." said Hardin. With Long being only a sophomore and many promising freshmen, the E.R. wrestlers will be the team to watch in the next few years. The wrestling team's overall record was 6-5, with a 6-1 conference record. All-Conference picks were Shawn Spinks, Tim Layton, James Walden, Billy Rollins, Jeff Thomas, and Eugene Wilson. Senior Billy Rollins set school records for the most takedowns, reversals, nearfalls, and escapes.

Surprise Season for Varsity Baseball

After being picked to finish sixth in the conference, the Varsity Baseball team certainly surprised everyone. With only three weeks to go in the season the team was leading the Mid-State Conference. However, injuries and the tragic loss of player Chris Neal made the rest of the season very tough to experience. Head Coach Tommy Maness said, "In spite of it all, the team showed a tremendous amount of courage." Coach Maness looks forward to having a talented squad for the 1987 season.

Leading the 1986 roster was All-Conference and All-County pick Barry Ellison. Second Baseman Ellison, Most Valuable Player, had a batting average of .358, followed by Bill Parson .310, and Robert King .294. King was Honorable Mention All-Conference. Mike Price, most improved player of the season, led the pitching squad with four wins, two saves, and thirty strikeouts. "Beating Conference champs W. Alamance 11-6 and Runner-Up S. Alamance 7-3, were the highlights of the season," said Coach Maness.

JV Cats Post 9-5 Record

The 1986 Junior Varsity Baseball Team had an impressive season. Their overall record was 9-5, with a 2-2 conference record. Seven of nine starters were freshmen. Coach Tysinger was pleased with the way the young guys responded to their roles. "The most remarkable thing about the team was that they never gave up." In six of the nine games the JV Cats came from behind to post a win. Three of the players had a batting average over .400. Jeff Allred was voted Most Valuable Player.

The 1986 Boys Track Team posted a 1-6 conference record and a 1-7 overall record. In spite of their record, everyone worked hard throughout the season. Head Coach Dick Oliver cited a lack of depth and few sprinters as weaknesses of the 1986 team. The strength of the team was strongest in the field events. Leading the '86 team were All-Conference selections Reggie Alston and Tracy Lankford. Reggie set school records in the 110 high hurdles and 300 meter hurdles, while Tracy set a new pole vaulting record.

CLUBS

Clubs are an important part of school life for our students. There are a wide variety of clubs to choose from at Eastern Randolph. Many of the clubs such as Computer, History, and International are related to course that students are enrolled in at ER. Other clubs such as Octagon, Jr. Civitans, and Catspaw are open to anyone who is interested in being a member. Clubs give students a chance to meet and work with fellow students and faculty, while having a lot of fun at the same time!

Catspaw

Catspaw is a service organization. The Catspaw is sponsored by Ms. Susan Caviness. Each year at Eastern Randolph, the Catspaw honors the student body and the administration with a special program. This year Catspaw presented Robert Nathanson from UNC-Wilmington. Mr. Nathanson is a guitarist. He performed four short concerts throughout the school day. He gave one evening performance, along with the ERHS Jazz Band and Renee Matthews, for the public. Refreshments were served in the library in honor of Mr. Nathanson on the afternoon of his concert. Catspaw invited the faculty to this social, giving them a change to meet Mr. Nathanson in person.

In the spring, Catspaw will be taking a trip. In addition to this, Catspaw will be giving a scholarship award this year.

Computer

Ellen Williams, Pres.; Steven Wicker, V-Pres.; Brian Tatem, Sec./Treas.

The Computer Club at Eastern Randolph, sponsored by Mrs. Margaret Rooks, is a club which introduces and informs students about computers. Members of the club bring their own computers to give demonstrations for the rest of the club throughout the year. Also, the Computer Club planned to help produce the school news letter and to put up a bulletin board in front of the office. Members in the club must pay dues of five dollars, which is used for their membership in THE BIG RED APPLE CLUB. Being a member of the BIG RED APPLE CLUB allows the school to purchase software at a discount, which benefits the entire school.

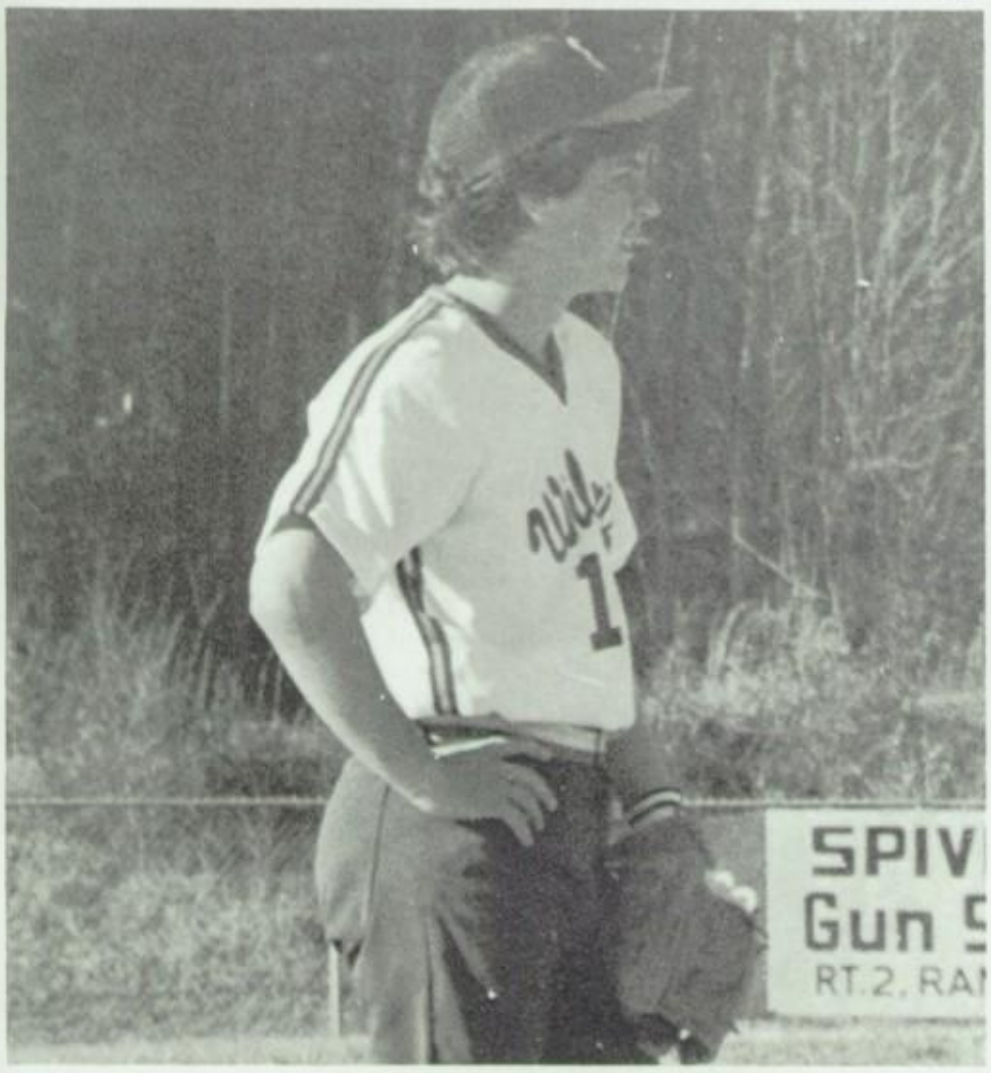
CLOSING

IN MEMORIAM:



Chris Neal

October 1, 1969 — April 23, 1986

Chris Neal was born on October 1, 1969. On April 23, 1986 he was involved in a fatal car accident. A sophomore at Eastern, Chris was well-known and a special friend to many. He was also active in athletics at school, playing JV football and baseball. He held the highest batting average, 525, on the team last season. Chris' tragic death was a shock to everyone, but his memory will be with us forever.

By: Lisa Passarini

If we did not go to sleep at night
We'd never awaken to see the light
And the joy of watching a new day break
Of meeting the dawn by some quiet lake
Would never be ours unless we slept
While God and all his angels kept
A vigil through his "little death"
That's over with the mornings breath
And death, too, is a time of sleeping, for those who die are in God's keeping
And there's a "sunrise" for each soul,
for LIFE not DEATH is God's promised goal
So trust God's promise and doubt him never for only through death can man LIVE FOREVER.

Badness you get easily, in quantity: the road is smooth and it lies close by. But in front of excellence the immortal gods have put sweat, and long and steep is the way to it, and rough at first. But when you come to the top, then it is easy, even though it is hard. — Hesiod. Congratulations! We are very proud of all your accomplishments.

Love, Mother, Father, and Britt

YEARBOOK STAFF!

CONGRATULATIONS ON A JOB WELL DONE! Your hard work and dedication paid off. Best of luck to Carla, Lisa, and Steven as you graduate. A very special thanks to Steven. Without you I could not have made it! You are all very special to me.

Ms. Clark

I, Sue Morrow, being of sound mind and body, leave to all my friends, especially to Lisa Ward, I say, "Thanks for the great times and great friendships."

I, Carla Nixon, leave my great parking space and car troubles to my dear friend Chris Reid, and to Donna Snider, I leave my exciting times to you at E.R.H.S.!

I, Sandy Norton, being of sound mind, leave my love and friendship to Theresa, Christy, and Tonyia.

I, Wendy Pack, being of unsound mind, and body, hereby leave E.R. with hopes that someone will look after the smoking area.

I, Kristy Padgett, being of sound mind, hereby bequeath Kristi Reagon — hope to make it through the rest of her junior year.

I, Melanie Parson, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my seat in Ms. C's history class to anyone who has the guts to take one of her classes.

I, Candy Parris, being of partially sound mind and short body, declare this my last will and testiment; To Wayne L. and Mike C., I leave my sanity.

I, Andy James Pate, in sound mind, hereby leave my car to my brother. Also, to my other brother, I leave my shotguns.

I, Elonna LaKisha Patterson, of sound mind and body, will leave my beauty, charm, and witt to Miss Robin Foushee.

I, James Patterson, being of sound mind and body leave my terrific chorus voice and sense of humor, personality, and KOOLNESS to Brad Williams.

I, Lori Michelle Patterson, being of sound mind and body, leave to Chris Shelton all the good memories that you, Russelette, Tim, and I have had together.

I, Lisa Pope, being of sound, mind, and body, leave all my books and teachers and my locker to my sister Teresa, hoping she'll get a lot from her years here.

I, Donna Pugh, being of warped mind and body, do hereby bequeath to Angie Kivett, I leave all of my good times and fond memories.

I, Barbara Ritter, being of little sound and no mind, leave all my good times and great memories to Joann McDowell.

I, David Ritter, being of weird mind and since it's football season, tired body, refuse to leave Shannon Belk, because I love her so much.

I, Andrew T. Roberson, of sound body and fast hands, solemnly give Benji Springs, my compassion for human beings, for he has none.

I, Alisha Routh, being of sound mind and body, leave my parking space to my cousin, Tammy Nance.

I, Jed Routh, being of questionable mind and amazing body, do hereby bequeath my hair to Coach Oliver and Mr. Whitley.

I, John Salmon, being of sound mind and body, leave my sister, Renee, my hopes that she will have a great life at E.R. and beyond.

I, Sandra "Pooh", leave all my craziness and ability to handle things to Elaine F., Duane B., Angie R., Jeff N., and Eddie M. Have fun!!

I, Ritu Sandhu, of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my talent of harassing Mr. Allen to anyone ready to accept the responsibility.

I, Sarah Scotton, leave all of my memories to my friends. To Spring Bingham, I leave my nickname, "Moose," to carry on as well as I did.

I, Brenda Seal, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to all Seniors, that all their dreams come true and to all upcoming grads., the challenge of '87.

I, Brian Shackelford, being of insane mind and body, do hereby leave good luck to Howard S. and all the trumpets.

I, David Shelton, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my locker and parking space to any underclassman who does not drive a Ford.

To my brother Chris Shelton, I, Melody Simmons, do hereby leave my Mama, my trampoline, all my oatmeal cookies, and all the love a friend can possibly give.

I, Sonji Siler, hereby leave such a boring school to my fellow student members.

I, Dedie Smith, being of sound mind and short body, do hereby bequeath my love of pink to Donna S. and my parking space #248 to Joann Mc.

I, Rena Dawn Smith, being of sound mind and body leave all my good times that I have had to my cousin, Kim Smith who will be an upcoming freshman next year.

I, Michelle Snyder, being of abstract mind and "innocent" body, do hereby bequeath my locker to Anna C., may she have more books in than I did!

I, Travis Stout, being of sound mind and body, leave all my love and happiness to my family and friends.

I, Allen Swaim, do hereby bequeath my Mustang and parking place to my little brother Danny.

I, Sherri Tatem, being of deranged mind and dilapidated body, hereby bequeath my old test papers to Brian.

I, Pamela Thomas, hereby leave all my love and fun to Timmy and the school.

I, Lisa Tucker, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Deanna H. and Spud my swinger, because a 4-cyclinder will get you nowhere.

To my sister Amanda, I leave a long list of teachers I broke in for you. Good luck! Mike Underwood.

I, Tammy Lynn Varner, being of sound mind and body, leave all my great memories and good times to Shannon Smith and Stevie Whitehead, (The Weinies.)

I, Tina Varner, leave my volleyball position to Angie Shaw. I leave my pitching position to Connie Richardson.

I, Mavis Walden, leave my good times and locker to my cousin, Samaria. May she have just as much fun as I did.

I, Melissa Wall, leave my sister Susan Wall, my locker and good times. I leave my best friend's sister Kathy Thomas, my intelligence.

I, Shanna Walters, being of sound mind and body, leave mine and Audrey's "All 2 Pieces" attitude.

To my kin folk left, I leave you E.R.H.S. James Walden.

I, Lisa Ward, being of sound mind and body, leave Steve Davis my parking spot, I leave Sandy Fields my old softball uniform.

To Mike Underwood, I leave my car and to his sister, I leave all the good times for her to pass on. Good Luck! Joe Warren.

I, Brad Waugh, being of deranged mind and perfect body, leave my bus to my brother Chris, in hopes he'll drive it.

I, Tracy Waugh, of sound mind and body, leave my parking space to my brother Rod and Ronald Medley and my locker to my cousin Jeff, who'll be a freshman.

To Kim Leonard, I leave my mother — let mom drive the crazy, crazier. To Gean Payne, I leave my temper because you're nice. Kristy Weeks.

I, Russelette Welch (Shelton) being of sound mind and body, would like to say thanks to my boyfriend Chris Shelton, for making my senior year so special!

I, Sandra Welch, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to Allison Stanley an upcoming freshman, the thrill of fighting her way through the halls.

I, Sherrie Whitehead, being of sound mind and body, leave Craig Whittington, Larry Gardner, and Dwight Parks all the great times at lunch.

I, Ellen Williams, being of sound mind and short body, leave all my used hall passes and excused note to Karen Scotton.

I, John Williams, leave the Eastern Randolph FFA chapter, the '87-'88 president in hopes that he/she will keep the chapter as successful as it has been.

I, Lexie Williams, being of sound mind and body, leave my brother with no way to school.

I, Rodney Wilson, being of sound mind and great body, leave only my basketball shoes to Chris Brown, because his feet are as big as mine.

I, Patti Wolfe, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my locker on G-hall back to Sandy F. and to Brad F., I leave my ability to pass Ms. C's test.

I, John Workman, being of unsound mind, leave my studebaker to Lee Iaccoca so that he can build some cars that will last.

I, David Wright, being of sound mind and perfect body, hereby bequeath to Shawn Needham my good looks (he needs all he can get).

I, Donna Wright, of sound soul and mind, leave my parking space in the teachers parking lot to Pandi Hughes.

I Randall York, leave Danny Allred my parking space, and Mr. Coble, I leave Byron Styron.

I, Tony York, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave nothing to anybody because I'm taking it all to Myrtle Beach. "87"

I, Sandra Young, leave the greatest times of my life to Jeff Lindley, in the hopes that he will have just as much fun as I did.

I, Tim Ellington, being of sound mind and will, do bequeath my position as head football coordinator of the football team to my Uncle Burton Cates.
